The Appellant has wrongly challenged their orders along with the other Respondents, who have been promoted to the post of Junior Clerk. 2. Correct to the extent that as per service recruitment rules of the Department, 33 % quota is reserved for Class IV employees having requisite qualification for promotion against the post of Junior Clerk (BPS-11) subject to seniority cum fitness. 6. Incorrect. The claim of appellant that he was not aware from the promotion process is ridiculous as all the Class IV employees were called for interview, wherein their typing skills were tested. It is pertinent to mention that the appellant failed the typing test (Annex-D). Moreover, all the successful candidates were promoted to the post of Junior Clerk on 15-05-2019 and further adjusted on 22-07-2019. (Annex-E)

- B. Incorrect. The Respondents have acted in according with the service recruitment rules provided under the Law.
- C. Incorrect. The Respondents are duty bound to treat the appellant in accordance with service rules. Furthermore, all the promotions have been made without any discrimination.

- I. It is the duty of appellant to perform his duty as per terms and condition of his service.
- J. The statement of appellant is wrong and misleading as none of the employee has been promoted against the post of junior clerk without passing typing test. Therefore, the claim of the appellant being similarly placed is out of question.
