Request Appeal for release of pay stopped illegally by DDO North

With great respect it is claimed that our pays were stopped without any cogent reason by the Ex. DDO North. We were already lodged appeal to the D2 merged area. The D2 merged area was kind enough to direct release order to DDO North. The DDO constituted enquiry committee on the order. The committee submitted report to DDO. But in the meanwhile the process was under process and the new DDO was posted. We were now DDO and the new DDO was kind enough and bill prepared and submitted to the DDO office. The DDO office raised observation and the DDO removed the observation and re-submitted the bills to the DDO office which is still pending in his office. His objection has been recognized in your kind honor that a necessary order may kindly be passed to DDO & D2 merged area for paying the bills as soon as possible so if we paid our bills.
