5th Oct. 2023 1. Mr. Asad Ali Khan, Assistant Advocate General for the petitioner present.

2. Neither the learned Assistant Advocate General nor the departmental representative are prepared for preliminary hearing. They even could not assist the Tribunal to know what for this petition was filed. However, in one of the paragraphs it is stated that Secretary Administration was not properly heard. We observe that Secretary Administration was party in the main appeal and he had also admittedly filed reply, therefore, this contention is prima facie not well founded. However, since the learned AAG seeks some time to prepare the case, last opportunity is given to him. It also seems that the application U/S-12(2) CPC is not properly instituted. The AAG and the ~~properly~~ ^{duly} authorized representative shall explain as to the format of the petition. To come up for arguments on 13.10.2023 before the D.B. P.P given to the parties.
