Counsel for the appellant present. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant is a civil servant of Executive Group and terms and conditions of the appellant are governed by the then Provincial Civil Services (Secretariat/Executive Rules 1997. That the appellant was entitled to promotion but ignored constraining him to prefer service appeal for ante-date promotion which was allowed vide judgment dated 13.3.2009 where-against appeal of the department before the august Supreme Court of Pakistan was dismissed on 24.5.2012 and, therefore, on the strength of the said judgments notification dated 25.7.2012 was issued giving ante-date promotion to appellant with effect from 1.2.2005 and there-after appellant was promoted to BPS-18 on 9.2.2012. That on the strength of Rule-8 of the KPK Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 and amendment dated 12.11.2007, the appellant stood senior to civil servant belonging to PMS Group. That despite seniority of the appellant and the afore-stated rules, respondent No. 3 Amir Afaq (PMS) was appointed in BPS-19 on acting charge basis and with an object to deprive the appellant from his vested right of promotion constraining the appellant to prefer departmental appeal against the impugned notification dated 21.11.2014 on 18.12.2014 which was not responded and hence the instant service appeal on 16.4.2015.

Appellant Deposited
Security & Process Fee

That the appellant is entitled to promotion in preference to respondent No. 3 as the appellant belongs to the Executive Cadre while respondent No. 3 belongs to PMS Group and, therefore, the appellant stood senior.

Points urged need consideration. Admit. Subject to deposit of security and process fee within 10 days, notices be issued to the respondents for written reply/comments for 27.4.2016 before S.B.

SERVICE APPEAL U/S 4 OF THE KPK
SERVICE TRIBUNAL ACT, 1974 AGAINST THE IMPUGNED NOTIFICATION NO.SO(E-I)
E&AD/5-1/2014 DATED 21.11.2014,
WHEREBY THE RESPONDENT NO.3 WAS PROMOTED IN BS-19 ON ACTING
CHARGE BASIS AGAINST THE PROMOTION
QUOTA OF THE APPELLANT WITH IMMEDIATE EFFECT.

18/4/15

Respectfully Sheweth:

Short facts giving to the present appeal are as under:

1. That in earlier round of litigation the appellant brought an appeal before the Service Tribunal, KPK stating therein that he belongs to PSC (EG), he was promoted as Tehsildar on regular basis, he was promoted in PCS (EG) BPS-17 on temporary basis, thereafter, he was promoted to BPS-17 on regular basis on 19.02.2008 in PMS Group/ Cadre with immediate effect, during this period many posts became vacant in PCS (E.G), instead of ante-dating the promotion of the appellant in BPS-17 (EG) i.e. the date on which the vacancy fell vacant, and he became entitled for promotion on his turn in the seniority list of PCS (EG), after exhausting departmental appeal, the appellant filed service appeal before the Service Tribunal, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, which was allowed vide order dated 13.03.2009, the relevant portion of the judgment is reproduced below:

“We accept both the appeals, and direct the official respondents of each of the two appellant in the respective dates on which a vacancy become available for the respective turn of the appellant or from the respective dates of their taking charge of such vacancy on officiating / acting charge basis, which ever is later. The appellants were entitled to the costs of their respective litigation from the official respondents". (Copy of judgment is Annexure "A").

2. That not satisfied with the judgment of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal dated 11.03.2009, the respondents filed appeal before the Apex Court which was dismissed vide judgment dated 24.05.2012. (Copy of judgment is Annexure "B").
3. That ultimately the respondent No.2 ante-dated the promotion of the appellant with all back benefits/ consequential benefits and re-designated the post as PCS(EG) BPS-17 vide Notification NO.SOE-II/(ED)2 (423)/2010/Vol-II dated 25.07.2012. (Copy of notification is annex "C").
4. That the appellant was promoted in BPS-18 on regular basis in PCS(E.G) vide Notification dated 09.10.2012, but with immediate effect instead of in due course of time, though he was entitled to be promoted in due course of time as many permanent vacancy in BPS-18 was lying vacant since 17.12.2005, it is worth mentioning that PSB was held on 08.12.2007, in which 17 officers were promoted in

BPS-18 in PCS(E.G) out of 27 vacant posts in BPS-18 in PCS(E.G), 10 seats were left vacant in PCS(E.G) in Grade-18 since promotion of BPS-17 was ante-dated w.e.f. 01.06.2000 vide Notification dated 25.07.2012 and his name appears at Serial No.40 in the said notification dated 25.07.2012, therefore, he was eligible to be promoted in BPS-18 in PCS(E.G) when the PSB was held on 08.12.2007, but he was left from promotion.

5. That the appellant possesses all the requisite qualification i.e. seniority-cum-fitness to be promoted in BS-19.
6. That the name of the appellant appears in the seniority list of PCS (EG) and name of Mr. Amir Afaq newly promoted in BS-19 lies in the PMS list.
7. That the respondent No.3 was promoted in BPS-19 vide notification No.SO(E-I)E&AD/5-1/2014 dated 21.09.2014, in violation of the rules, hence, feeling aggrieved, the appellant filed departmental appeal, which was not responded till date, therefore, the appellant approaches this Honourable Tribunal, inter alia, on the following grounds:

N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997. It was also clarified that such incumbents shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. It means that out of each two vacancies, one vacancy shall be given to Secretariat Group, while other vacancy shall be given to the Executive Group. Further clarification is made to the effect that the existing incumbents of PCS (EG) and (SG) in different pay scales shall continue to be governed under the Rules of 1997 for the purpose of their promotion and this process is to continue till the retirement of last such incumbent. The appellant belongs to the Executive Group of Civil Servants. He was to be governed under the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/ Executive Group) Rules, 1997 before 11.05.2007 and they have to be governed under the above mentioned Rules of 1997 till the retirement of the last incumbent of a post in Secretariat Group/ Executive Group.

- C. That vide notification No.SO(E-I)E&AD/6/2014 dated 21.11.2014 amendments were brought in the N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 notified on 11.05.2007, the relevant amended rule is reproduced below:

- “2. In Rule-8, the full-stop appearing after the words and figures “at the ratio of 50:50” shall be replaced by a colon and thereafter the following proviso shall be added, namely:

Provided that for the purpose of promotion of both the Secretariat Group and the Executive Group of the said service in different pay scales,-

- i) the incumbent shall continue to be governed by the said service rules till the retirement of the last such incumbent; and*
- ii) the last incumbent of either group shall rank senior to the first incumbent of the Provincial Management Service.”*

The rule quoted above clarifies that the last incumbent of either group shall rank senior to the first incumbent of PMS Service, hence the appellant being senior to Mr. Amir Afaq had the legal right to be considered for promotion in BS-19.

- D. That Mr. Amir Afaq was promoted in B S-19 in violation of rules and seniority list referred to above, hence, his promotion order is not sustainable.
- E. That the impugned notification offends Article-4, 8 & 25 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973.

- F. That the impugned notification is in conflict with the Rule seniority-cum-fitness principle and also infringed the legal and accrued right of the appellant, therefore, warrants interference.
- G. That the appellant seeks leave of this Honourable Tribunal to raise/ argue any additional point at the time of arguments.

It is, therefore, most humbly prayed that on acceptance of this Service Appeal, the impugned notification No.SO(E-I)E&AD/6/2014 dated 21.11.2014 whereby Mr. Amir Afaq was promoted from B S-18 to BS-19 may be declared as illegal, unlawful, without lawful authority, without jurisdiction, malafide, offends judgment of the superior court, void-ab-initio and of no legal effect, hence be set aside, and the appellant be promoted in BS-19 with all back benefits.

JUDGMENT

JUSTICE (R) SALIM KHAN, CHAIRMAN.-The present appeal No. 612 of 2008 by Muhammad Iqbal Khattak and appeal No. 613 of 2009 by Ahmad Khan involved similar questions of law, therefore, these are taken together for arguments and disposal.

2. Muhammad Iqbal Khattak was promoted as Tehsildar on regular basis vide order dated 28.12.1988. He was promoted to PCS(E.G) (BPS-17) on temporary basis vide notification dated 06.03.1996. He contended that many posts became vacant, but the appellant was promoted to (BPS-17) on regular basis on 19.2.2008 with immediate effect, instead of ante-dating of his promotion to the date on which the vacancy fell to his turn in the seniority lists of officers of PCS (E.G). His departmental appeal was rejected on 22.03.2008. The present appeal was filed on 16.4.2008 which is within time. The case of Ahmad Khan (Appellant) is similar to the case of Muhammad Iqbal Khattak on facts also. His appeal is also within time.

3. The respondents contested the appeal on many grounds, including the ground that no one could claim a vested right in promotion or in the terms and conditions for promotion to a higher post.

4. We heard the arguments and perused the record.

5. The learned counsel for the appellants contended that the appellants were temporarily posted to BPS-17 post on 06.3.1996, but they remained silent, because they did not have a vested right for promotion to a higher post. The appellants have already been considered for promotion and have been found eligible and fit for regular promotion to BPS-17 post, therefore, the principles embodied in the judgment of the August Supreme Court of Pakistan reported as 1990 SCMR 1321 are not applicable to their cases. In fact, the vacancies had become available for the appellants as early as on 30.11.1999, and it was the responsibility of the official respondents to expeditiously deal with the cases of the appellants for their regular promotion. The appellants could not be punished for no fault on their side, or for delay caused by the official respondents in processing the cases of the appellants. He relied on 1997 PLC (C.S) 77, wherein it has been held in para 3 as under:-

"On behalf of the Government it is contended that no civil servant has a right to claim that he should be promoted from a back date even though a vacancy may be existing on the date from which the promotion is being claimed. This is no doubt true but there are no orders by the Government that the respondents/petitioners should be held up for some time. The delay in making the promotions occurred entirely due to the reason that the officials of the Education Department could not carry out a fairly simple exercise within a reasonable period. In the circumstances it will not be appropriate for this Civil Petition to interfere with the order of the Service Tribunal. Leave is refused."

The judgments cited as 1990 SCMR 1321 and cited as 1997 PLC (C.S) 77 are on two different aspects of the same subject.

6. Ante-dating of promotion, after consideration of the candidate aspiring for such promotion, after he was found eligible and fit for such promotion and is promoted, is an established principle of law. Such a candidate cannot be punished for any delay caused by the department in processing his case for promotion. The order of promotion, therefore, has to be ante-dated to the date on which the vacancy for his turn became available or to the date on which he actually took charge of the post on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later.

7. The A.G.P contended that the present appeals were miserably time-barred and both the appellants were stopped by their own conduct to file the present appeals. In fact, the principle embodied in the judgment reported as 1990 SCMR 1321 was applicable to the cases of the appellants from 06.3.1996 to 18.2.2008. They could not claim promotion as of right. The principle embodied in the judgment reported as 1997 PLC (C.S) 77 became applicable to their case on 19.2.2008. Cause of action arose to the appellants for claiming ante-dation of their promotion as prayed for only when their cases were considered for promotion, they were found eligible and fit for promotion, and their promotion orders were issued, though with immediate effect. They filed their departmental appeals within time from the date of the impugned order dated 19.2.2008, and their appeals were rejected on 22.3.2008. They filed Service Appeals on 16.04.2008. The departmental appeals as well as the Service Appeals were well within time.

8. The A.G.P further contended that, according to the proviso contained in sub-section (2) of Section 22 of the N.W.F.P Civil Servants Act 1973, "no representation shall lie on matters relating to the determination of fitness of a person to hold a particular post or to be promoted to a higher post or grade." Judgment cited as 1990 SCMR 1321 was, then, applicable and appellants could not file representation. This stage has already passed. The appellants have been considered for holding the higher post after their promotion to that higher post, and their fitness for such promotion and holding of post has already been determined. The judgment cited as 1997

ATTENDED

Att.

PLC (C.S) 77 has become applicable after determination of fitness of the appellants. The question in these cases is not the determination of fitness but is the right of ante-dation of their promotion. The appellants had vested right for consideration of promotion on their turn, whenever it was, and, when found fit on determination of fitness, at any stage, they had a right to claim ante-dation of their promotion to the dates on which the vacancies were available for their respective turns or from the date on which they actually took the charge of their respective posts, whichever were later in time.

9. The A.G.P also contended that according to sub-rule (6) of Rule 9 of the N.W.F.P Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 1989 "acting charge appointment shall not confer any vested right for regular promotion to the post held on acting charge basis." The appellants have never claimed any vested right for regular promotion to the post which they held on acting charge basis, on the basis of acting charge appointment. In fact, they did not have such a right. They remained silent for a long time, knowing that they did not have such a right on the basis of acting charge appointment. They, however, had a vested right, as civil servants, for consideration for promotion, when the authority was to consider someone for promotion against the vacancy. No other person could be considered till the appellants were so considered. They, therefore, had a vested right for ante-dation of their promotion only when they were regularly promoted, but from the date when the vacancy became available for their turn.

10. The A.G.P further contended that, according to the North West Frontier Province, Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007, notified on 11.05.2007 vide No. SOE.II(ED)2(14)2007, The NWFP Provincial Civil Service (Secretarial/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 were repealed. He was of the view that the N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 had come into force at once w.e.f. 11.05.2007, while the orders of promotion of the appellants were issued on 19.02.2008. He submitted that the promotion orders were covered by the new rules, therefore, the appellants could not claim any benefit out of the already repealed rules of 1997. In order to clarify this controversy, it is necessary to reproduce the relevant Rule 8 of the N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 which is as under:-

SECRETARY
N.W.F.P.
[Signature]

18      15

"8. Repeal:- The North-West Frontier Province Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 shall stand repealed after the retirement of existing incumbents of both the cadres. Separate seniority list of both the cadres shall be maintained under the existing rules and they shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. The existing incumbents of PCS (E.G) and (S.G) in different pay scales, for the purpose of their promotion, shall continue to be governed under the said service rules till the retirement of the last such incumbent."

The above rule, by itself, clarifies that the rules of 1997 shall not stand repealed before the retirement of the existing incumbents of both the cadres of Secretariat/Executive Groups, and shall remain in force till the retirement of the last such incumbent. It further clarified that separate seniority list of both the cadres shall be maintained under the existing rules. The existing rules for such incumbents are the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997. It was also clarified that such incumbents shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. It means that out of each two vacancies, one vacancy shall be given to Secretariat Group, while another vacancy shall be given to the Executive Group. Further clarification is to the effect that the existing incumbents of PCS (E.G) and (S.G) in different pay scales shall continue to be governed under the rules of 1997 for the purpose of their promotion, and this process is to continue till the retirement of last such incumbent. Both the appellants belonged to the Executive Group of Civil Servants. They were to be governed under the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 before 11.05.2007, and they have to be governed under the above mentioned rules of 1997 till the retirement of the last incumbent of a post in Secretariat Group/Executive Group.

11. The cases of the appellants are, therefore, to be governed in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 (quoted above) of the new N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007. The record shows that vacancies were available for the appellants but they were not promoted at the due time and their cases for promotion were delayed unnecessarily without any fault of the appellants. They, therefore, are entitled to ante-dation of their promotion, against the first available vacancy falling to the turn of each of them or from the date of taking over the charge of that vacancy on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later.

12. In the light of the above, we accept both the appeals, and direct the official respondents to ante-date the promotion of each of the two appellants to the respective dates on which a vacancy became available for the respective turn of the appellants or from the respective dates of their taking charge of such vacancy on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later. The appellants are entitled to the costs of their respective litigation from the official respondents.

J U D G M E N T

EJAZ AFZAL KHAN, J. --- These appeals with the leave of the Court have arisen out of the judgment dated 11.3.2009 of the Service Tribunal whereby appeals filed by the respondents were allowed.

2. The points raised and noted while granting leave read as under:-

"We have heard the learned counsel at some length. We are inclined to grant leave inter-alia on the point as to whether the legal and factual aspects of the controversy have been dilated upon and decided by the Tribunal in accordance with relevant Rules i.e. Rule 8 of the NWFP, Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 and Rule 9(6) of the NWFP Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 1989. It is also to be examined as to whether that stop-gap arrangement can be equated to that of regular promotion and besides that the order passed by the learned Service Tribunal could be made applicable to Tehsildars who are awaiting their promotion. Since a short question of law is involved in the matter, therefore, the case be listed after four weeks subject to limitation. In the meanwhile operation of the impugned judgment shall remain suspended".

Supreme Court of Pakistan

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants contended that though the Governor of the Province in consultation with the Provincial Selection Board was pleased to order the promotion of the respondents in BPS-16 as Extra Assistant Commissioner in BPS-17 in the Ex-PCS (E.B) Cadre with immediate effect on purely temporary basis vide notification dated Peshawar 6th March, 1996, yet it could not earn them any benefit or entitle them to a vested right notwithstanding they have been promoted on regular basis with immediate effect vide notification dated 19.2.2008. They, the learned counsel added, could not have claimed any ante-dated promotion even on the occurrence of any vacancy in such scale in violation of Section 8 of the Civil Services Act or Rule 9 of NWFP Civil Service (Executive Group) Rules, 1997, as decidedly promotion is not a vested right. Appeal before the departmental authority, the learned counsel added, or before the Tribunal claiming ante-dated promotion was, therefore, misconceived. The learned Tribunal, the learned counsel maintained, could not have allowed such appeal when it tended to mar the seniority of many others in the run. The learned counsel to support his contention placed reliance on the cases of "Wajahat Hussain, Assistant Director, Social Welfare, Lahore and 7 others. Vs. Province of the Punjab, through Secretary, Social Welfare and Zakat, Lahore and 81 others" (PLD 1991 S.C. 82), "Sh. Anwar Hussain, Assistant Director, Labour Welfare, Lahore Region, Lahore. Vs. Government of the Punjab through Secretary, Labour Department and others" (1985 SCMR 1201), "Nazeer Ahmed. Vs. Government of Sindh through Chief Secretary Sindh, Karachi and 2 others" (2001 SCMR 352), "Government of Pakistan through Establishment Division, Islamabad and 7 others. Vs. Hameed Akhtar Niazi, Academy of Administrative, Walton Training, Lahore and others" (PLD 2003 S.C. 110).

The learned counsel next contended that a change in scale by means of promotion is not automatic but dependent on a process involving selection, therefore, any change in scale without such process being violative of the relevant law and rules, cannot be maintained. The learned counsel to support his contention placed reliance on the case of "Abid Hussain Sherazi. Vs. Secretary M/o Industries and Production, Government of Pakistan, Islamabad" (2005-SCMR 1742).

4. As against that learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents defended the impugned judgment by contending that where a vacancy occurs in the next higher scale, the Civil Servant officiating or working on acting charge basis thereagainst is not considered for promotion or the process of regular promotion is delayed on account of lethargic attitude of the competent authority or any other exigency so-called, the Civil Servant who is subsequently found fit for such promotion on regular basis cannot be deprived of the salary and other consequential benefits attached to such post. Learned counsel to support his contention placed reliance on the case of "Luqman Zareen and others. Vs. Secretary Education, NWFP and others" (2006 SCMR 1938). The learned counsel next contended that though the NWFP Civil Service (Secretariat Group) Rules, 1997 have been substituted by the NWFP Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 but the rights of the existing incumbents of both the cadres have been protected by Rule 8 of the latter, therefore, the change in rules would not affect the service structure of the respondents or rights accruing thereunder. The learned counsel next contended that if the concluding paragraph of the impugned judgment is read none of the rights of any of the officers including their seniority has been affected.

5. We have gone through the entire record carefully and considered the submission of the learned counsel for the parties.

6. The record reveals that the Governor of the Province in consultation with the Provincial Selection Board was pleased to order the promotion of the respondents working in BPS-16 as Extra Assistant Commissioner in BPS-17 in Ex-PCS (E.B) Cadre. The respondents were, no doubt, promoted on temporary basis in the year 1996, all the same, what stands out to be taken notice of is, that it was not done without considering their eligibility and without involving the process of selection as is evident from the order itself. When asked whether the respondents were deficient in terms of qualification or experience to hold the post in the next higher scale, at the time they were promoted temporarily, the reply of the learned counsel for the appellant was in no. When asked whether there was any impediment in the way of the respondents to be promoted to the next higher scale, at the time when a vacancy or two occurred in the said scale, again the answer was in no. When asked what restrained the appellants to defer or delay the process of selection to fill one or any number of vacancies occurring from time to time in the next higher scale, the reply of the learned counsel was that it was because of confusion created by the devolution plan. This answer, to say the least, is too vague to be plausible. When asked who was senior to the respondent and whose right of ranking senior has been affected or impaired by the impugned judgment, again the learned counsel could not refer to anything on the record.

8. There is no dispute with the proposition that the terms and conditions of the service of the respondents, in view of the provision contained in Rule 8 of NWFP Civil Service (Secretariat Group) Rules, 2007, shall continue to be governed by the erstwhile rules. There is also no dispute with the proposition that if the respondents were to hold a post on acting charge basis, they could also hold the same on regular basis. In the case of

"Luqman Zareen and others. Vs. Secretary Education, NWFP and others"

(2006 SCMR-1938), this Court while dealing with an identical issue held as under :-

"It is then a position admitted on all sides that nothing existed in the way of the petitioners on 31.8.2000 which could have disentitled them to regular promotion to the posts in question and that it was only the usual apathy, negligence and bureaucratic red-tapsism which had deprived the petitioners of the fruits that they deserved. The petitioners could not be permitted to be punished for the faults and inaction of others. We are of the view that where a post was available against which a civil servant could be promoted; where such a civil servant was qualified to be promoted to such a higher post; where he was put on the said higher post on officiating or acting charge basis only because the requisite exercise of allowing the regular promotion to the said post was being delayed by the competent authority and where he was subsequently, found fit for the said promotion and was so promoted on regular basis then he was entitled not only to the salary attaching to the said posts but also to all consequential benefits, from the very date from which he had been put on the said post on officiating or acting charge basis and we hold accordingly".

While dealing with the reservations of the nature expressed by the learned counsel for the appellant, this Court held as under :-

"A bare perusal of these judgments would thus, show that this Court had always accepted the principle that a person who was asked to hold a higher post to which he was subsequently promoted on regular basis, was entitled to the salary etc, attaching to such a post for the period that he held the same; that he would also be entitled to any other benefits which may be associated with the said post and further that if a vacancy existed in a higher cadre to which a civil servant was qualified to be promoted on regular basis but was not so promoted without any fault on his part and was instead put on the said post on officiating basis then on his regular promotion to the said post, he would be deemed to have been so promoted to the same from the date from which he was allowed to hold the said higher post unless justifiable reasons existed to hold otherwise".

When this being the state of things on factual and legal plain, we don't think the judgment of the learned Service Tribunal is open to any exception. The judgments rendered in the cases of "Wajahat Hussain, Assistant Director, Social Welfare, Lahore and 7 others. Vs. Province of the Punjab, through Secretary, Social Welfare and Zakat, Lahore and 81 others", "Sh. Anwar Hussain, Assistant Director, Labour Welfare, Lahore Region, Lahore. Vs. Government of the Punjab through Secretary, Labour Department and others", "Nazeer Ahmed. Vs. Government of Sindh through Chief Secretary Sindh, Karachi and 2 others", "Government of Pakistan through Establishment Division, Islamabad and 7 others. Vs. Hameed Akhtar Niazi, Academy of Administrative, Walton Training, Lahore and others" and "Abid Hussain Sherazi. Vs. Secretary M/o Industries and Production, Government of Pakistan, Islamabad", (supra) cited by the learned counsel for the appellants are not applicable to the case in hand because of their distinguishable facts and features.

9. For the reasons discussed above, these appeals being without merit are dismissed.

Respected Sir,

1. That the appellant belongs to PCS (Executive Group) and was lastly promoted to BS-18 in PCS Executive Group on 9.10.2012.
2. That the name of the appellant appears at S.No. 37 of the seniority list of Officers of PCS (EG) BS-18, issued on 28.1.2014 and name of Mr. Aamir, newly promoted in BS-19 lies in the seniority list of PMS Officers.
3. That the appellant possess all requisite qualification (i.e. seniority-cum-fitness) to be promoted in BS-19.
4. That the appellant feeling aggrieved from the impugned Notification No. SO(E-1)E&AD/6/2014 dated 21.11.2014, whereby Mr. Aamir was promoted in BS-19 and, therefore, approaches your good-self, inter alia, on the following grounds :

A. That the impugned Notification No. SO(E-1)E&AD/6/2014 dated 21.11.2014, whereby Mr. Aamir was promoted from BS-18 to BS-19 is illegal, without lawful authority, without jurisdiction, malafide, offends judgment of the superior court, void-ab-initio and of no legal effect, therefore, the same is liable to be set aside.

B. That the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997, were repealed by the NWFP, Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 notified on 11.5.2007, but despite repealment, the promotion of the appellant is to be governed under the NWFP (Executive Group) Rules 1997. To clarify this, it is necessary to reproduce the relevant Rule-8 of the NWFP, Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007, which is as under :

“8. Repeal – The North-West Frontier Province Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 shall stand repealed after the retirement of existing incumbents of both the cadres. Separate seniority list of both the cadres shall be maintained under the existing rules and they shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. The existing incumbents of PCS (EG) and (SG) in different pay scales, for the purpose of their promotion, shall continue to be governed under the said service rules till the retirement of the last such incumbent”

The above rule, by itself, clarifies that the rules of 1997 shall not stand repealed before the retirement of the existing incumbents of both the cadres of Secretariat/Executive Groups and shall remain in force till the retirement of the last such incumbent. It is further clarified that separate seniority list of both the cadres shall be maintained under the existing rules. The existing rules for such incumbents are the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997. It was also clarified that such incumbents shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. It means that out of each two vacancies, one vacancy shall be given to Secretariat Group, while another vacancy shall be given to the Executive Group. Further clarification is made to the effect that the existing incumbents of PCS (E.G) and (S.G) in different pay scales shall continue to be governed under the rules of 1997 for the purpose of their promotion and this process is to continue till the retirement of last such incumbent. The appellant belongs to the Executive Group of Civil Servants. He was to be governed under the N.W.F.P. Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 before 11.5.2007 and they have to be governed under the above mentioned rules of 1997 till the retirement of the last incumbent of a post in Secretariat Group/Executive Group.

C. That vide Notification No. SO(E-1)E&AD/6/2014 dated 21.11.2014 amendments were brought in the N.W.F.P. Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 notified on 11.5.2007, the relevant amended rule is reproduced below :

"2. In rule 8, the full-stop appearing after the words and figures "at the ratio of 50:50" shall be replaced by a colon and thereafter the following proviso shall be added, namely :

Provided that for the purpose of promotion of both the Secretariat Group and the Executive Group of the said service in different pay scales, -

- (i) the incumbent shall continue to be governed by the said service rules till the retirement of the last such incumbent; and
- (ii) the last incumbent of either group shall rank senior to the first incumbent of the Provincial Management Service.

The rule quoted above clarifies that the last incumbent of either group shall rank senior to the first incumbent of PMS service, hence the appellant being senior to Mr. Aamir had the legal right to be considered for promotion in BS-19.

- D. That Mr. Aamir was promoted in BS-19 in violation of rules and seniority list referred to above, hence his promotion order is not sustainable.
- E. That the impugned notification offends Article-4, 8 and 25 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973.
- F. That the impugned notification is in conflict with the Rule seniority-cum-fitness principle and also infringed the legal and accrued right of the appellant, therefore, warrants interference.

It is, therefore, prayed that on acceptance of this appeal, the impugned notification No. SO(E-1)E&AD/6/2014 dated 21.11.2014, whereby Mr. Aamir was promoted in BS-19, be laid to rest and PCS (E-G) Officers may be considered for promotion on their own turn as per rules.

Dated _18/12/2014.
