

1st Nov. 2023

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner present. Mr. Asad Ali Khan, Assistant Advocate General for the respondent present.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner when confronted that the earlier execution was filed on reply of order dated 14.09.2022 from the respondents, then how the second application could be moved, to which, learned counsel referred to Section 48 (2) of the CPC and stated that when the judgment debtors who in this case are the respondents, also had produced by fraud or force, prevented the execution of the decree, he could still maintain the application and that would run in accordance with law. Keeping in view, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned AAG are put on notice to assist the Tribunal, whether the revised sanction order dated 14.09.2022 has been issued completely complying with the judgment of the Tribunal or there was something left to be done more by the respondents. To come up on 14.11.2023 before S.B. P.P given to the parties.
