Learned counsel for the appellant argued the objection raised by this office in respect of filing one service appeal about two different orders is misconceived as both the orders are interlinked/connected with each other because first order dated 29.06.2021 is in respect of not nominating appellant for intermediated course which is prerequisite and mandatory for promotion of Head Constable to the post of ASI and second order dated 23.11.2022 is order of the authority upon application/departmental representative of the appellant filed on 19.10.2022 for nominating and sending appellant for Intermediated Course for considering his promoting case. As both the orders are interlinked and basically is about promotion. Therefore, arguments of the learned counsel seems genuine. Office objection removed and file to come up for preliminary hearing on 17.10.2023 before S.B. P.P given learned counsel for the appellant.
