Counsel for the appellant present. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant is serving as DSP and vide impugned seniority list dated 7.6.2013 his seniority was erroneously computed from the date of appointment of appellant as Inspector while the same was countable from the date of appointment of appellant as ASI where against he preferred departmental appeal on 4.7.2013 which was not responded and hence the instant service appeal on 5.11.2013.

That the appellant is entitled to be placed in the seniority list on the position which would accrue after computing his service and seniority from the date of appointment as ASI.

Points urged need consideration. Admit. Subject to deposit of security and process fee within 10 days, notices be issued to the respondents for written reply/comments for 4.2.2016 before S.B at Camp Court Swat.

Appeal under Section 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 against the final seniority list of the appellant issued on 07-06-2013 (received to the appellant on 10-06-2013) against which the appellant preferred a departmental appeal which is still pending disposal despite the lapse of mandatory period of time.

Prayer:

That on acceptance of this appeal the appellant may be placed at his appropriate place in the seniority list.

Respectfully Sheweth:

1. That the appellant is a regular employee in the police force and is performing his duties with vigor, zeal and punctuality without any complaints, whatsoever, by the authorities till date.

re-submitted to-day and filed.

5/11/13

2. That forced litigation has always been not appreciated and encouraged by the August Supreme Court and the Honourable High Courts particularly in those cases where the benefit of a decision on a particular law point is not extended to the other similarly placed persons who might have not litigated the same case and dragging them into forced litigation.
3. That in the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servant Act, 1973 and the Appointment, Promotion and Transfer Rules 1989 made there under has an absolutely clear principle for determination of the seniority of all the Civil Servants, which is that it shall be reckoned from the date of regular appointment/promotion to a particular cadre.
4. That the seniority of the appellant in cadre of Inspector has been reckoned from the date of his promotion as Sub-Inspector whereas the same in the case of Deputy Superintendent of Police has been reckoned from the date of their appointment/promotion as Assistant Sub-Inspector. A copy of seniority list of the appellant is enclosed as Annexure "A". ~~and that of the Deputy Superintendent of Police as Annexure "B"~~
5. That the reason assigned to the reckoning of the seniority of the Deputy Superintendent of Police from the date of their appointment / promotion as Assistant Sub-Inspector is the decision of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal in the case of certain Police Officers mentioned in the seniority list.

6. That once it was decided by the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal that the reckoning date for the determination of the seniority is the one on which the officer has been appointed or promoted as Assistant Sub-Inspector, then there was no reason for not giving the seniority to the appellant from the date of his appointment/promotion as Assistant Sub-Inspector. The same time it is illegal and illogical that the seniority of the appellant has been reckoned/determined from his promotion as Sub-Inspector. It should have also been from the date of promotion/appointment as Assistant Sub-Inspector.
7. That to get the discrimination undone the appellant submitted his representation to the Provincial Police Officer, respondent No. 2, but the same has not been taken up for consideration as yet. Copy is enclosed as Annexure "B".
8. That the appellant has two fold grievance; one when he was not treated alike and the other when his representation was not taken up for consideration. This amounts to wrong exercise of powers in the earlier case and non-exercise of powers in the latter one, both of which are manifestly against the commands of the Constitution and the law emanating therefrom.

It is, therefore, very respectfully prayed that on acceptance of this appeal the respondents may very kindly be directed to treat the appellant with equality and in accordance with the law so that the appellant is not dragged/compelled into forced litigation.

Any other relief deemed appropriate may also very kindly be granted.

Subject: Appeal against the final seniority list of the appellant issued on 07-06-2013 (received to the appellant on 10-06-2013) and Placement of the appellant at the appropriate place in the seniority list by reckoning it from the date of the initial appointment/promotion in the cadre of ASI.

Respected Sir,

The appellant submits as under:

1. That the appellant was properly appointed/promoted to the rank of ASI on 13-04-1982.
2. That the appellant got the information that final seniority list of the DSPs has been issued on 07-06-2013 received to him on 10-06-2013, which shows discrimination with regards the seniority of the appellants has been depicted wrongly.
3. That the first seniority lists of the DSPs reveals that their seniority has been reckoned from the date of their appointment / promotion (as the case may be) as ASI. Whereas that in case of final seniority list the same has been neglected in complete contradiction to the various judgments of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal, of the PPO has no authority at all.

4. That the reasons assigned to the earlier seniority list was two decisions, one in the case of Shafullah Khan VS the PPO and Others and the second in case of Younas Javid Mirza, SP FRP, Peshawar VS PPO and Others.
5. That there is no scope left for not reckoning the seniority from the date of their promotion as ASI.
6. That by now it is a settled law that once a question of law stands decided by a Tribunal or a Court the benefit of that decision has to be extended to all others similarly placed persons.

It is, therefore, very respectfully prayed that on acceptance of this application the seniority of the appellant may very kindly be determined and reckoned from date afore said i.e. the date of promotion/appointment as ASI and consequently to place the name of the appellant in the seniority list in the proper place.

Yours Obediently

Application for condonation of delay

Respectfully Sheweth:

1. That the above titled appeal is fixed before this Hon'ble Tribunal for today.
2. That the counsel for the appellant was undergoing medical check up at the Hayatabad Medical complex and undergone the procedure of angiography.
3. That the counsel being admitted to the hospital could not hand over the appeal before time. However the same was handed over two days before the period of limitation i.e. 120 days. When the appellant reached on the last day of limitation to Peshawar, due to heavy traffic and numerous police post erected for security measures, caused the appellant to reach the Hon'ble Tribunal beyond duty hours.
4. That the appellant filed the appeal on the very next day without any further delay.
5. That the delay in filing of the appeal is inadvertent and unintentional and beyond the control of both the counsel and the appellant. Moreover, the delay is of a single day, which if condoned, the appellant will not be left non-suited.

It is, therefore, very respectfully prayed that on acceptance of this application, the inadvertent delay in filing of the instant appeal may very kindly be condoned in the interest of justice.

Service Appeal No. 1506/2013

Bahar-ud-Din Khan.....(Appellant)

Versus

Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa through Chief Secretary
Peshawar and others.....(Respondents)

Subject:- REPLY ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENTS

- a) The appeal has not been based on facts.
- b) The appeal is barred by law and limitation as he is seeking seniority from the date of appointment in the year 1971 after lapse of about 41 years long period.
- c) The appeal of appellant is not maintainable in the present form as District Police Officer and Regional Police Officer competent authorities for confirmation in the rank of ASI and SI have not been cited as respondent in the appeal.
- d) The appellant has not come to the Honorable Tribunal with clean hands as he has not made respondent the DSsP against whom he claims seniority. He is seeking decree at the back of necessary parties.
- e) The appellant has got no cause of action to file the appeal at this belated stage for fixation of seniority from the date of entry into the service in the year 1971.

FACTS:-

1. Correct to the extent that appellant was enlisted in Police department and he earned promotion to the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police on his own turn and retired from service with effect from 31.08.2014 on attaining of superannuation. Therefore, the appeal of appellant at this stage is not maintainable. Copy of the retirement order is enclosed as Annexure-A.
2. Incorrect, respondents have never forced the appellant for litigation and have treated him in accordance with law and rules. The respondents follow the statutory rules and verdicts of Superior Courts while disposing matters concerning terms and conditions of service of subordinate officers.
3. Incorrect, the seniority and promotion of the junior ranks Police officers (Constable to Inspector) is regulated and governed by Special Law i.e. Police Rules and Police Order. The Civil Servant laws are not applicable to the junior ranks Police officers. The appellant is seeking antedated seniority in the junior ranks therefore, his case is governed by Police rules.

4. Incorrect, seniority of Police officers of junior rank is regulated by Police Rules. Seniority and promotion of junior ranks Police officers is subject to qualification of promotion courses and acquiring the prescribed experience. According to Police Rule 12.2(3) seniority shall, however be finally settled by dates of confirmation in the rank. The impugned seniority list of Deputy Superintendent of Police was prepared in accordance with dates of confirmation in the rank of Sub-Inspector.
5. Incorrect, appellant was inducted in Police department in year 1971 and he earned promotion to the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police in the year 2012. He availed promotion in rank of Sub-Inspector and Inspector and did not raise any objection against the seniority lists which are being issued annually. Therefore, he is wrongly contending antedated seniority from the date of appointment as ASI at this belated stage after about 41 years.
6. Incorrect, the appointment of probationer ASIs are confirmed from the date of appointment, however, confirmation in the rank of Sub-Inspector is subject to fulfillment of requirements of Police Rules 13.10(2) which mandated that no Assistant Sub-Inspector shall be confirmed in a substantive vacancy of Sub-Inspector unless he has been tested for at least a year as an officiating Sub-Inspector in independent charge of a Police Station in a district other than that in which his home is situated. The competent authority has further relaxed this rules wherein services in Special Branch and Investigation Wing etc is counted as period of SHO.
7. Incorrect, as evident from the impugned seniority list enclosed with the original appeal that the same was prepared in pursuance of unanimous decision arrived during house meeting held on 27 and 29 May 2013 under the Chairmanship of Respondent No. 2.

Therefore, the representation of appellant was carrying no force as unanimous decision was already made in connection with fixation of seniority of the DSsP. Copy of the minutes of the meeting is enclosed as Annexure-B.

8. Incorrect, the prayer of appellant is not clear and he has not cited the DSsP as respondent against whom he claims seniority and he has not pointed out the serial number in the seniority list where his name is required to be placed. Furthermore, qualification of promotion courses and acquiring prescribed experience is pre-condition for seniority and promotion of junior ranks Police officer. Therefore, the appeal of appellant is not sustainable. This is also worth mentioning that a provisional seniority list DSsP was issued by the department and numerous representations against the provisional seniority list were received therefore, common decision was made during meeting held on 27 and 29 May 2013. Copy already enclosed.

It is therefore prayed that the appeal of appellant may be dismissed with costs.

MINUTES OF IN-HOUSE MEETING

In house meetings were held in two phases, 1st on 27th May, 2013 and the 2nd on 29th May, 2013 at Conference Room CPO Peshawar under the Chairmanship of Mr. Ihsan Ghani Provincial Police Officer Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. Representatives from Executive and Legal branches also participated. The following cases were discussed in detail:-

1. Case regarding Joint Seniority of Executive and Legal Branches in light of judgement of Peshawar High Court dated 24.04.2013.
 2. Determination of Seniority of DSsP in the light of Courts Judgments.
1. Case regarding Joint Seniority of Executive and Legal Branches in light of judgement of Peshawar High Court dated 24.04.2013.

The Honourable High Court Peshawar in its Judgement dated 24.04.2013 in Writ Petition No. 1680-P/2012 filed by Mian Mustafa, Gul DSP Legal/Asstt: Director, ACE, Peshawar directed the respondent Department (Police Department) to issue combined Seniority List of two Branches of the Police Department i.e Legal and Executive and thereafter make promotions on the basis of seniority cum fitness in accordance with law in terms of Article 8 (2) (p) of the Police order, 2002.

Abstracts from the Police Rules and Court judgments were put before the house, which are reproduced below:-

Police Rule 12.6 (3) (e)

After recruitment, no Inspector Legal shall be allowed change of cadre from Inspector Legal to the Executive or any other branch in the Police Department.

Article 8 (2) P of Police Order-2002.

Article 8. Police to be organized on functional basis:-

(1) The Police establishment constituted under Article 7 shall, as far as practicable, be organized on functional basis in to branches, divisions, bureaus and sections.

(2) The branches, divisions, bureaus and sections referred to in clause (1) may include- (a) Investigation; (b) Intelligence; (c) Watch and Ward; (d) Reserve Police; (e) Police Accountability; (f) Personnel Management; (g) Education and Training; (h) Finance and Internal Audit; (i) Crime Prevention; (j) Crime against women; (k) Traffic Planning and Management; (l) Criminal Identification; (m) Information Technology; (n) Transport; (o) Research and Development; (p) Legal Affairs; (q) Welfare; (r) Estate management;

PLD 1985 Supreme Court 159

Present: Muhammad Haleem, C.J., Muhammad Afzal Zullah, Shafiur Rahman and Mian Buranuddin Khan. Inspector General of Police, Punjab, Lahore and others-Appellants.

Criterion for determining seniority of subordinate ranks of Police force, held, would be provided by R. 12.2. Police rules, 1934 as from dates of their confirmation and not from date of continuous appointment in the grade as laid down in Punjab Civil Servants (Appointment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1974, r. 8 (1) (6) read with S. 7 (2), Punjab Civil Servants Act, 1974—Special Law, viz. Police Act, 1861 and Rules framed there under having not been repealed expressly or by implication, held further, would prevail over later law of general application i.e. Punjab Civil Servants Act, 1974 and Punjab Civil Servants (Appointment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1974— {Interpretation of statutes—Civil services}

The Civil Servant Act is an Act of general application and it has no constitutional status. Accordingly, it is as much a law as the Police Act of 1861 with the added distinction that it is of general application while the Police Act is of special application to the officers of the subordinate ranks of the Police force. The same is true with the rules. In this view of the matter, the question as to which would prevail over the other in case of inconsistency is of no difficulty. It should not be forgotten that the Police Act and the rules framed there-under are such as would be applicable to a disciplined force only while the Civil Servants Act cannot serve this purpose. {p.173}K.

The house discussed the case threadbare in light of the above rules/orders and decided that:-

The decision of the Honourable High Court dated 24.04.2013 is required to be agitated in the Apex Court and directed the AIG/Legal CPO to move for a CPLA through Law Department Govt: of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.

- a) A Sub-Committee consisting of Addl: IGP/HQrs., Addl: IGP/Ops, Addl: IGT/S.B, DIG/HQrs, AIG/Estab: and a representative from Legal Branch was constituted to look-into the affairs of Legal Branch, prepare Service Structure and submit recommendation to the PPO / Khyber Pakhtunkhwa by 10.06.2013.
- b) A case be prepared immediately for promotion of Legal officers to the next higher ranks on their available vacancies by 10.06.2013.

2. SENIORITY DISPUTE OF DSP (Executive)

The house deliberately discussed the seniority case of DSP in light of court decision and Police Rules chapter 12.13.

Police Rule 12.2 (3) is reproduced below:-

(3) All appointments of enrolled police officers are on probation according to the rules in this Chapter applicable to each rank.

Seniority, in the case of upper subordinates, will be reckoned in the first instance from date of first appointment, officers promoted from a lower rank being considered senior to persons appointed direct on the same date, and the seniority of officers appointed direct on the same date being reckoned according to age. Seniority shall, however be finally settled by dates of confirmation.

The house unanimously decided that all the DSsP shall be given seniority as per their date of confirmation in light of Police Rule 12.2 (3) in the rank of SI and not from the date of appointment/promotion as ASI. The Provisional Seniority List of DSsP issued vide No. S/292-328/13, dated 11.01.2013 is set aside and the seniority list of DSsP as stood on 20.03.2012 is restored in its original shape by giving seniority to the DSP/Muhammad Idrees and Younas Javed Mirza as per court decision. Thus a final seniority list of DSP be issued according to Police Rules.
