Inspector General of Police, Head Quarter, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, CPO, Peshawar. JUDGMENT. PIR BAKHSH SHAH, MEMBER.- Appellants with counsel (Haji Shamsul Qamar, Advocate) and G.P (Muhammad Jan) with Falak Nawaz, DSP (Legal) for the respondents present. 2. Per minutes of the Departmental Promotion Committee meeting held on 05.7.2013 for the purpose of promotion of the ministerial staff/Junior Clerks of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police Department, promotion of the appellants Haji Gul and Mushtaq Ahmad respectively at S.No. 147 and 150 were deferred due to their incomplete ACRs, while their juniors were promoted. That their representation was also not timely responded, hence the instant appeals before this Tribunal under Section 4 of the the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974, proposed to be disposed off by this single judgment. 3. Arguments heard and record perused. 4. The learned counsel for the appellant submitted that

discrimination has been made with the appellant for the reason that officials at S.No. 159, 162 to 167 and 176 etc. were conditionally promoted despite their incomplete record. It was further submitted that ACRs of the appellant were lateron duly completed and submitted but cases of the appellant are not being considered for promotion which action of the respondent-department is in violation of the law and rules. He requested that the appeals may be accepted.

5. The appeals were resisted by the learned Government Pleader (Muhammad Jan) on the grounds that the appeal is bad for non-joinder of necessary parties and that a joint departmental appeal was filed in contravention of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servants (Appeal) Rules, 1986. He requested that the appeal may be dismissed.

6. After hearing arguments of the learned counsel for the parties at length and going through the record with their assistance, the Tribunal is constrained to observe that if juniors to the appellant were conditionally promoted despite their incomplete ACRs and that if ACRs of the appellant were lateron completed but were not sent to DPC, it shows that appellants have been discriminated and that the fault lies on the part of the respondent-department for which the appellants could not be penalized.

7. Since the matter pertains to promotion, therefore, without going into further discussion, the Tribunal is inclined to direct the respondent-department to put up for consideration cases of the appellants before the DPC with complete record positively within a period of two months of the receipt of this judgment. The appeals are allowed accordingly. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record.

Appellant with counsel for the appellant present. Preliminary arguments heard and case file perused. Counsel for the appellant contended that the appellant has not been treated in accordance with law/rules. The learned Government Pleader while assisting the court was of the view that the appellant has not been made/arrayed as necessary party in the instant appeal. He further relying on Section - 4 (b)(i) of the Service Tribunal Act, 1974 in which it is clearly mentioned that:-

“the fitness or otherwise of a person to be appointed to or hold a particular post or to be promoted to a higher post or grade”

Hence not maintainable its present form. He requested that the instant appeal may be dismissed in limine.

.....Appellant

V E R S U S

1. Additional Inspector General of Police, Head Quarters Central Police Office, KPK, Peshawar.
2. Provincial Police Officer, KPK, Central Police Office,
Peshawar.....Respondents

Appeal U/S 4 of Service Tribunal Act 1974 against the orders of respondent No.1 whereby he promoted 68 Junior Clerks (BPS-7) as Senior Clerk (BPS-9) and deferred the appellant on the grounds that his ACR for the year 2011 and 2012 was incomplete whereas many Junior Clerks either senior to the appellant or most junior to the appellant whose ACRs were also incomplete were conditionally promoted and that the respondent No.2 did not consider the representation of the appellant within specific period. (Annexure A-B).

[Handwritten signature and date 19/11/13]

PRAYER

That the orders may please be declared against law, rules against principles of natural justice based on pick-and- chose and discrimination and may be set aside with the directions to the respondents to promote the appellant as done in case of other clerks placed on similar position, with all benefits.

Respectfully Sheweth:

1. That the appellant is serving as Junior Clerk (BPS-7), in the office of DPO Charsadda since 11.06.2009.

2. That 69 posts of Senior Clerks (BPS-9) had fallen vacant in the police clerical staff of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.

3. That the respondent No.1 promoted 68 Junior Clerks as Senior Clerks in those vacancies and deferred the appellant for the reasons that the ACRs of the appellant for 2011 and 2012 were incomplete.

4. That the appellant submitted representation to the respondent No.2 which was not decided in specific period.

Hence the appellant approaches this Honourable Tribunal for relief inter-alia on the following grounds:-

GROUND S:

- A. That there is no fault of the appellant because the Reporting Authority is bound to record annual confidential reports on the working of his subordinates immediately on the close of the year in the month of January next year, and to be conveyed to civil servant upto June if there were any adverse remarks.
- B. That if a Reporting Officer is transferred before completion of the year, he has to write these report before relinquishing charge.
- C. That in both these conditions the responsibility for not writing A.C.Rs of the appellant is on the Reporting Officer and the appellant cannot be condemned for omission/ failure of reporting officer for failing to write ACR in time.

D. That the D.P.C or the authorities have not even directed the concerned officers (Reporting Officer and Countersigning Officer) to submit the same immediately.

E. That according to the information of the appellant, the reporting officer has given reports but the same were lying in the office of the Countersigning Officer (i.e D.I.G Mardan or C.C.P.O) but the authorities of D.P.C have even not directed the concerned offices to submit the same before the date of the D.P.C (meeting).

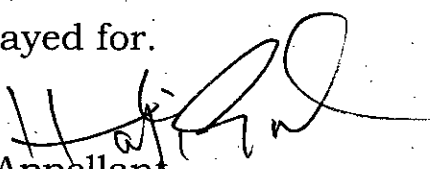

F. That as the appellant has not been received any adverse reports upto how it suggest that the A.C.Rs are satisfactory but even if there are adverse reports these cannot be considered against the appellant at this belated stage.

G. That the impugned promotion list will prove itself that all the clerks mentioned at S.No.1 to 53 (senior to appellant) and the clerks mentioned at S.No.54 to 67 except No.56, 60, 65 who are most junior to the appellant have similar record but have been conditionally promoted as senior clerks, which show that the department has kept double standard of dealing with the subordinates and policy of pick and chose has been adopted, which clearly amounts to discrimination and is not approved by rules, law and principles of natural justice, as the law and Constitution of Republic of Pakistan (Article 25) require that all persons holding the same group are entitled to equal treatment (seniority list is Annex C).

- H. That the appellant seek the permission of this learned tribunal to rely on additional grounds at the time of hearing.

It is, therefore, requested that the appeal may kindly be accepted as prayed for.

Respected Sir,

Most respectfully submitted that recently 68 junior clerks of Khyber Pukhtunkhwa have been promoted to the rank of Senior Clerks in which juniors have been superseded and seniors have been deprived from promotions.

TRIBUNAL PEASHAWAR.

Service Appeal No. 1518/2013

Haji Gul.....(Appellant)

Versus

Provincial Police Officer Khyber Pakhtunkhwa &
others.....(Respondents)

Subject:- COMMENTS ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENTS.

Respectfully Sheweth!

- a) The appeal has not been based on facts and has got no cause of action.
- b) The appeal is not maintainable in the present form and is premature.
- c) The appeal is bad for non-joinder and mis-joinder of necessary parties.
- d) The appellant is estopped by his own conduct to file the appeal.
- e) The appeal is barred by law and limitation.
- f) The appeal of appellant is hit by section 4 (b) (i) of NWFP (KPK) Service Tribunal Act, 1974 as appellant has challenged promotion order.
- g) The appellant has not come to the Honorable Tribunal with clean hands.

FACTS:-

- 1) Needs no comments as it pertains to the service record of the appellant.
- 2) Correct to the extent that Departmental Promotion Committee approved suitable junior clerks for promotion to the next rank of senior clerk after examining the record of service and credentials of the candidates on merit list. In pursuance of decisions made during Departmental Promotion Committee impugned promotion order was issued.
- 3) Correct to the extent of promotion of 68 junior clerks to the rank of senior clerk and the name of appellant was at Serial No. 147 of the merit list and he was deferred due to incomplete ACRs for the year 2011 and 2012. Appellant has been deferred for promotion to the next rank and was not superseded therefore, his appeal is not maintainable.

- 4) Incorrect appellant and two others had submitted joint representation which is violation of Rule 3 (2) of NWFP (KPK) Civil Servant (Appeal) Rules, 1986 hence not maintainable.

GROUND:-

- A) Incorrect, appellant has not made the Reporting officer and Countersigning officer i.e. concerned District Police Officer & Regional Police Officer as respondent in the appeal, therefore the contention of appellant is not tenable.
- B) Incorrect, appellant has not made the reporting officer as respondent in the appeal therefore his such contention is wrong as reporting officer is the proper and competent authority to answer this Para of the ground of appeal.
- C) Incorrect, as explained above that appellant has not made the reporting officer and countersigning officer as respondent in the appeal therefore, he has wrongly referred to the omission on the part of said authorities.
- D) Incorrect, respondent have time and again issued directions for completion of ACRs of subordinate staff.
- E) Incorrect, Reporting officer and Countersigning officers are responsible for the completion of the ACRs of their subordinate candidates and the said authorities have not been made respondent in the appeal.
- F) Incorrect, appellant was deferred from promotion on account of missing of ACRs and not due to adverse remarks.

G) Incorrect, appellant avoided to implead the junior officials as respondent in the appeal. Furthermore, respondents conditionally approved for promotion those junior clerks whose ACRs for short period were missing. Again appellants were deferred and not superseded.

H) Respondent may also be allowed to raise additional points at the time of hearing of the case.

It is therefore, prayed that the appeal of appellant may be dismissed with costs.

- C. Incorrect. Para C of appeal is worth consideration.*

- G. Incorrect, reply to Para G of the appeal.*

It is correct that A.C.Rs for 2011 and 2012 were missing but in the case of the following junior clerks, who are although junior then the appellant, A.C.R for many years were missing and they were promoted conditionally, and this condition was not extended to the appellant, which amounts to discrimination and unjust dealing with subordinates.

*Moreover record of other Junior Clerks mentioned in Para G was also incomplete, which clear example of discrimination.
