Subject:- DEPARTMENTAL APPEAL

R/Sir,

Respectfully Sheweth,

1. That I have been serving in Law Department's District Attorney Wing as N/Q since 2009.
2. My seniority number in the Seniority List of Class-IV was 11 but my name was excluded from the seniority list of Class-IV in 2020. I was also informed the Directorate General of Law & H.Rs KPK in time. (copy of objection annexed)
3. That the Directorate General of Law & H.R had been advertised jobs in various cadre in the year 2020 and later on the Department were made appointment on that posts.
4. That I did not have any information/idea about the vacant posts of junior clerk at the time of advertisement nor had mentioned the number of the said post by the Directorate General in his advertisement.
5. Now, I have come to know through some reliable source that more than 33 numbers of posts of junior clerks were vacant in 2020 & 2021.
6. Ten (10) posts of the Junior Clerks out of 33 posts were filled on promotion bases while the rest of other was filled with fresh recruitments which were more than the prescribed limit (67%) quota.
7. It is worth to mention here that the department were filled the post of junior clerk through fresh recruitment and ignored the quota of class-IV employee.
8. As you well aware that all the employees serve with the hope that one day they will get promotion from lower scale to higher scale and their financial condition will become better.
9. But I am to say with sorrow that I was deprived from my legal rights and my post was given to another person.
10. If the Directorate had acted upon the prescribed quota I would certainly had promoted to the post of junior clerk.

In light of the above facts the appeal may please be accepted and give the right to the appellants in light of the prescribed 33% quota for Class-IV in the cadre of Junior clerk and oblige please.
