FACTS:

1. Para No.1 needs no comments, as endorsed by the respondent department in Para-1 of Para-wise comments as correct.
2. Para No.2 needs no comments, as endorsed by the respondent department in Para-2 of Para-wise comments as correct.

Incorrect, the appellant was recommended on 2.8.13 and his appointment order was issued on 19.12.13 along with others colleagues, it is necessary to mention here that Appellant i.e. Shamsa Afridi was first recomendee, recommended on 08.10.2012 in the Adv.No. 02/2011 in which the Appellant Shamsa Afridi and other colleague were appointed and on the basis of that, in the said Adv.No.02/2011 inter-se-seniority was issued in which the appellant was on Serial No.07, and as per the judgment Apex Court the date of recommendation of first batch for appointment shall be considered as the date recommendation for all and as such the appellant recommendation shall also be considered as 08.10.2012.
4. Para No.4 is Incorrect; Moreover the Notification dated 31.12.2012 was issued on the compliance of judgment dated 08.03.2012 in WP No.1289-P/2010 and that regularization was challenged by some private respondents and claimed regularization w.e.f 01.01.2009 before this Hon'ble Service Tribunal, which was dismissed on 25.04.2019 and the said judgment is also kept maintained by the Apex Court as well, dismissed & refused the leaves, meaning hereby that the private respondent were regularized w.e.f 31.12.2012, whereas
