7. That appellant preferred appeal, which no response.
(Copy of appeal as annexure B).

8. That appellant was entitled for the revised pay during the SET period but he was deprived from his own legal rights intentionally.

(9). That the supreme court of Pakistan vide civil appeal No:118-p of 2009 decided on 16.03.2011 and given the relief to one of the petitioner Attalla khan S.E.T i.e PP generally admissible to education department as well.

10. That as the appellant has already been awarded revise pay in the C.T stage and arrears along with revise pay of the SET period is still not granted for which he is entitled.

That petitioners bring this ~~copy~~ before this honorable court on the following grounds amongst others.

Grounds .

- a). That not awarding the benefit of one advance increment in the upper pay scale BPS-16 w.e.f 1.9.2003 till date and pay fixation declined in the SET period to the petitioners is an act illegal, unlawful without jurisdiction and being based on malafied intention of the respondent is liable to be set -aside.
- b). That granting the same benefit by the apex court to the other colleague of the appellant and no response to the appellant from the side of the respondents is clear violation of law rules, and not obeying the order of the apex court.
- c). That the appellant has been serving in the education department through out excellently and has never been given any chance of complaint to the high-up of the department nor to any person from the student community hence instead of rewarding the appellant for his spotless service and for his higher qualification he has been rather punished to declined of granted revise pay of the C.T period benefit not extend in the SET duration along with arrears.
- d) That no valid reason what so ever has not been mentioned by the respondent departments for declined the extend already granted benefit of revised pay of C.T period in the SET period to appellant.

e). That after the clear decision of the supreme court now there is no hurdle in granting the above said relief to the appellant.

It is therefore respectfully prayed that on acceptance of this appeal the respondents may please be direct to grant/allow benefit of one advance increment in the upper pay scale BPS-16 w.e.f 1.9.2003 till date and pay fixation be awarded of SET along with all financial back benefit from the date of his legibility.

It is further requested that direction may kindly be issued to respondents not withdrawal the granted benefits from the petitioners.
