

10.01.2024

1. Learned counsel for the appellant present and heard.
2. Learned counsel for the appellant requested that the service appeal of the appellant may be converted into departmental representation as the appellant had preferred departmental appeal which is still pending in the respondent department. The request seems appropriate, therefore, the instant service appeal is converted into departmental appeal with direction to the departmental appellate authority to decide it within a stipulated period on receipt of this order.
3. The appeal in hand stands disposed of on the above terms.
4. Pronounced in open court at Peshawar and given under my hand and seal of the Tribunal on this 10th day of January, 2024.
