SCANNED
KPST

20th July 2022

1. Learned counsel for the appellant present. Syed Naseer Ud Din Shah, Asst: AG and Mr. Noor Zaman Khattak, District Attorney for respondents present.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that during pendency of this appeal, the appellant was promoted on 07.11.2019 vide notification No. 6219-319/E-V but with immediate effect. In the appeal his prayer is for grant of promotion from the date his juniors were promoted. We have also perused the minutes of the Departmental Selection Committee held on 05.07.2013 wherein the appellant was deferred for incomplete ACRs for certain periods. When confronted with the situation that deferment was not a punishment and after removal of the deficiency, which was a hurdle for promotion, a civil servant was to be promoted from the date of deferment, the learned Asst: AG did not controvert the situation, therefore, while disposing off this appeal we direct the promotion of the appellant may be given effect from the date he was deferred. Disposed of accordingly. Consign.

3. Pronounced in open court in Camp Court Abbottabad and given under our hands and seal of the Tribunal on this 20th day of July, 2022.

Counsel for the appellant present.

It is contended that in compliance of the order of the Honourable Peshawar High Court passed in Writ Petition No. 474-D/2013 a notification was issued by the respondents on 21.06.2018, whereby, three Junior Clerks were promoted to the post of Senior Clerk who were juniors to the appellant. Prior to the said notification on 22.07.2013 six Junior Clerks were promoted as Senior Clerk who were also juniors to the appellant. The departmental appeal of appellant dated 14.11.2018 against the impugned promotion and his non-inclusion for promotion to Senior Clerk remained un-responded.

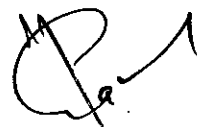

The appeal is admitted in view of arguments of learned counsel. The appellant is directed to deposit security and process fee within 10 days. Thereafter, notices be issued to the respondents. To come up for written reply/comments on 22.08.2019 before S.B at camp court, Abbottabad.

06-2009. (Copy of appointment order is annexed as Annexure "A").
2. That respondent No.3/ department issued seniority list vide Notification No.13053/E-III dated 31-12-2011 wherein petitioner was placed at serial No:283. (Copy of seniority list is as Annexure as Annexure "B").

3. That, respondent No.6 to 11 who were placed at Sr.298,302,304,305,306, and 307 of seniority list were promoted to the post of senior Clerk (BPS-09 now BPS-14) by respondent No.3 vide impugned Notification No.14779-99/E-III, dated 22-07-2013. While the petitioner was not considered for the purpose of promotion in sheer violation of law and against the principles of natural justice. (Copy of Impugned Notification is Annexure as Annexure "C").
4. That, petitioner filed departmental appeal/representation before the respondent No.1 for promotion but so far no re-dressal has been made. (Copy of representation is Annexure as Annexure "D").

GROUND:-

- a. That, Impugned Order/Notification of respondent No.3 not to consider the petitioner for promotion is highly illegal against the law and norms of natural justice.
- b. That impugned order against the law and facts hence liable to be set-aside.
- c. That the Impugned order dated 22/07/2013 is illegal, void ab-initio having no legal effects hence, liable to be set aside.
- d. That petitioner is duly qualified as per his due seniority as well as professional skills to have been to the post of Senior Clerk by the respondent, while processing promotion of Junior Clerk through impugned notification denial on part of respondents, amounts to discrimination in term of constitutional provisions.

- e. That while processing the promotion the petitioner was destitute from his lawful right and promotion order of the respondents No,6 to 11, (who were juniors to the petitioner) is highly condemned able and liable to be set-aside.
- f. That respondent No.3 issued the impugned Notification dated 22/07/2013 accommodated their blue eyed i.e. respondent No.6 to 11 and while ignoring the petitioner is against the law and the same is not sustainable in the eye of law.
- g. That other ground may be agitated during the course of arguments with the kind permission of this Honorable Court.

ON ACCEPTANCE OF THE INSTANT APPEAL, IMPUGNED ORDER NO.17479-99E-III, DATED 22-07-2013 MAY GRACIOUSLY BE DECLARED NULL AND VOID TO THE EXTENT OF RESPONDENTS NO. 6 TO 11, FURTHERMORE RESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT MAY KINDLY BE DIRECTED TO PROMOTION THE PETITIONER FROM JUNIOR CLERK TO SENIOR CLERK AS PER SENIORITY LIST FROM DUE DATE I.E. To, The Honorable Chief Secretary, Through: PROPER CHANNEL.

Subject: PROMOTION/ SENIORITY.

Respected Sir,

It is submitted that, I was appointed as Junior Clerk in Police Department vide, Worthy Inspector General of Police, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar office Notification No.14667/E-III, dated 12-06-2009 (copy attached), my date of birth is 10-02-1985 and education qualification is MBA (Finance). On 23-06-2012, a Seniority list was issued vide, CPO, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar Notification No. 13053/E-III, in which my name stood at Serial No.283.

Today I have come to know that, in compliance of order of the Honorable Peshawar High Court, D.I Khan bench, vide Order Sheet dated 16-05-2018, WP No. 474-D/2013 & COC No. 103-D/2018, CPO, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Peshawar, through Notification No. 3064-76/E-V, dated 21-06-2018, promoted 03 Junior Clerks to the post of Senior Clerk i.e. Mehran Khan at Serial No. 292, Muhammad Noman at Serial No.293 and Tanveer Alam at Serial No. 295.

All these promotees are Junior to me according to Seniority List mentioned above, Moreover the policy enunciated by Worthy Inspector General of Police, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar vide notification No. 14833-70/E-III, dated 15-06-2009, Whereof seniority of all the newly appointed Junior Clerks is to be reckoned from their date of birth as per existing rules. (Copy enclosed).

Prior to this the following Junior Clerks were promoted as Senior Clerks by the CPO, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar, vide his Notification No.17477/E-III, dated 22-07-2013 (copy enclosed for ready reference), who were also junior to me.

S#	Name	Date of Birth	Seniority List of Junior Clerk as it stood on 31-12-2011 issued on 23-06-2012
1.	Muhammad Haroon	27-07-1990	298

5.	Irfanullah	08-04-1989	306

In the said context, I submitted a number of appeals to CPO, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar against the promotion order of Junior Clerks, superseding my right of promotion (copies of appeals are enclosed), but no response has yet been made by the CPO. The said promotions were conditionally made subjected to provision of good ACRs within 03 months but I was not promoted as Senior Clerk on conditional basis along with my colleagues, despite of the fact that all my ACRs were up to date (2017). Due to which I have sustained huge financial loss in service and also damaged my seniority.

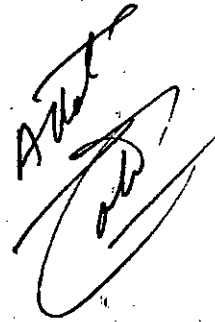

It is therefore requested that, I may kindly be promoted as Senior Clerk, along with my colleagues, w.e.f 22-07-2013 with all back benefits.

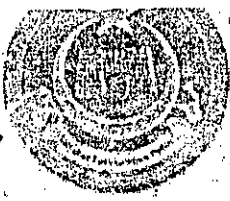

Thanking you for this act of kindness and also praying for your long life and prosperity please.

AGAINST RESPONDENTS FOR NON COMPLIANCE AND SHOWING DISOBEDIENCE TO THE ORDERS OF
THE HONOURABLE COURT ISSUED IN
THE WRIT PETITION NO. 474-D/2013
DATED 07/10/2013.

Respectfully Sheweth:-

BRIEF FACTS:

- 1- That petitioners were appointed as Junior Clerks in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police Department in years 12-6-2009.
- 2- That the respondents illegally and in violation of the seniority list, issued the seniority list by way of which Junior employees were given promotion as against petitioners.
- 3- That petitioners challenged the illegal acts of the respondents by way of Writ Petition No. 474-D/2013. During the proceeding of the above said Writ Petition Mr. DSP Legal Mr. Imtaiz Ali appeared before Honourable Court and made commitment that petitioners will be promoted as per their seniority. And the Honourable Court was pleased to allow the Writ Petition in the light of commitment made at the bar. Copy of the Writ Petition along with judgment dated 20/04/2017 is enclosed as Annexure "A".

4. That on the request of respondents Honourable Court was pleased to grant 60 days time from the date of judgment to grant promotion to the petitioners but respondents despite repeated requests have not given promotion to the petitioners.

5. That respondents are bent upon frustrating order of this Honourable Court by not promoting petitioners quite willfully which amounts to disobedience and non-compliance of the order of this Honourable Court. Hence petitioners approaches this Honourable Court for initiating contempt of Court proceeding against respondents, inter alia, on the following grounds:-

a) That the impugned action / inaction of the respondents of non-compliance and disobedience of this Honourable Court is against the law and is deliberate attempt on the part of the respondents simply to deprive the petitioner of remedy granted by this Honourable Court.

b) That the modus operandi and conduct of the respondents is in no way to be condoned as they have no regard and respect for this Honourable as is evident of their attitudinal behavior, which amounts to lowering dignity of the Honourable Court that's why respondents be proceeded against.

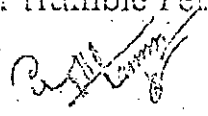

c) That modus operandi displayed by respondents for willful defying order of this Honourable Court has left the petitioner to seek indulgence of this Honourable Court to get its order implemented by initiating contempt of Court proceeding now through awarding punishment to respondents Under Sections 3, 4 the Act read with Article 204 of Constitution of Pakistan.

- d) That counsel for the petitioners may also be allowed to raise any additional grounds during the Course of arguments.

In view of the submissions made above, it is therefore humbly prayed that on acceptance this petition, this Honourable Court may very graciously be pleased to initiate contempt proceeding against the respondents under relevant laws, and they - be - punished for commission of contempt of this Honourable Court so that ends of justice and fair play be met in letter and spirit.

PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 199, CONSTITUTION OF I.P.R. 1973.

PRAYER:-

To kindly direct and require the respondents to act in accordance with law, desist from acting contrary to law, desist from discriminating the petitioners by promoting them and promoting juniors instead in derogation of law, rules and seniority.

To declare Order/Notification No: 17479/99/111 dated 22.7.2013 as illegal, ultra vires, Null and Void ab-initio, issued wrongly to the detriment of petitioners, and thereby direct and require respondents to desist from giving effect to the said Notification.

To direct and require the respondents to consider the petitioners for promotion in accordance with law, rules and above all their due seniority. With grant of any other remedy that this Hon'ble Court may consider appropriate in the circumstances.

Respectfully Stated,

The petitioners prefer instant petition on, inter-alia, the grounds hereinafter submitted apropos the following facts.

BRIEF FACTS:-

1. That the petitioners, sane, adult citizens are residing within territorial jurisdiction of this Hon'ble court and are rightfully eligible for the purpose of relief sought here.

2. That during the years 2008-2009, the petitioners besides a number of other candidates being duly qualified were appointed as Junior Clerks in KPFK Police Department by Respondent No.1 and have been posted last as per address given in the title.
3. That during the course of employment of the petitioners a Seniority List was devised and issued at the strength of Notification No:13053/E-III dated 28.6.2012 wherein petitioner No.1 is placed at serial No:228, Petitioner No. 2 at serial No:217, petitioner No.3 at serial No:229, petitioner No.4 at serial No:292, petitioner No.5 is at serial No: 293, petitioner No.6 at serial No: 295 and petitioner No.7 is placed at serial No.297 of the said list. Copy of Seniority List is placed at Annex-A.
4. That to the dismay of petitioners those junior to the petitioners i.e. respondents placed at serial numbers 12 to 28 in the title, have recently been promoted to the post of Senior Clerk (BPS-9) by respondents at the strength of Notification No:11479-99/E-III dated 22.7.2015 while the petitioners were not even considered for the purpose of promotion in clear derogation, violation and disregard to law, rules and principles of natural justice. Copy of Notification impugned hereby is placed at Annex-B.
5. That aggrieved of the high-handedness and illegality on part of respondents departmental appeals/representations were moved by all the petitioners with respondent No. 1 but were apparently thrown to trash-bin without any action and consideration since till date no response has been received by the petitioners from the office of respondent No.1 or rest. Copies of appeals/representations are placed at Annex-C.
6. That aggrieved of the discriminatory action and omission on part of the respondents in their failure to abide by the Law & Rules in vogue and left with no alternative available to him, the petitioners approach this Hon'ble court seeking redressal of their grievance on the grounds mentioned hereinafter.

GROUND:

- a. That the petitioners are duly qualified, as per their due seniority as well professional skills, and academics to have been considered for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk by the respondents while processing promotion of Junior Clerks through impugned notification. Denial on part of respondents not to consider the petitioners amounts to discrimination in terms of constitutional provisions.
- b. That the act and omission on part of respondents while processing and making promotions through impugned order / Notification is against the spirit or principles governing public / civil service and thereby has caused grave miscarriage of justice provoking interference by this Hon'ble Court in its constitutional jurisdiction to correct, rectify and undo the wrong.
- c. That the petitioners have been discriminated and victimized apparently due to extraneous and political interference and without any lawful justification. Withholding and ignoring Law, Rules & merit in making promotions by respondents appears to be an effort not only to appease political bosses but to frustrate the rights of the petitioners accredited day by law and precedents, thus calling for interference by this Hon'ble court.

d. That counsel for the petitioner may graciously be allowed to raise additional grounds during the course of arguments, if need be.

BEFORE THE HONORABLE SERVICE TRIBUNAL, PESHAWAR

Service Appeal No. 407 / 2019.

Amir Shafiq JC.....(Appellant)

VERSUS

Inspector General of Police and others.....(Respondents)

SUBJECT: COMMENTS ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENTS

RESPECTIVELY SHEWETH:

PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS:-

- a) The appeal is not based on facts.
- b) The appeal is not maintainable in the present form.
- c) The appeal is bad for miss-joinder and non-joinder of necessary parties.
- d) The appellant is estopped to file the appeal by his own conduct.
- e) Appeal is bad by law and limitation.
- f) The appellant has not come to this Honorable Tribunal with clean hands.
- g) The appellant has got no cause or locus standi of action to file present Service Appeal.

FACTS

1. Para No. 1 pertains to record.
2. Correct.
3. Para No. 3 is incorrect hence, rebutted. In fact 69 vacancies of Senior Clerks (BPS-09) were available for promotion of Junior Clerks to the rank of Senior Clerk. As per minutes of DPC held on 05.07.2013, a total 217 names of Junior Clerks were included in the agenda of meeting. The name of appellant was placed at S. No. 193 and was discussed in the DPC meeting wherein, the committee deferred him due to incomplete ACRs for the period from 01.01.2010 to 15.09.2010, 01.01.2011 to 31.12.2011 & 01.01.2012 to 31.12.2012, vide Notification No. 17477/ E-III dated 22.07.2013. (Copy of the DPC minutes & Notification No. 17477/ E-III is annexed as "A" & "B" respectively).
4. Pertains to record.
5. Para No. 5 to the extent of commitment before the Honorable Court for promotion of petitioner in Writ Petition No. 474-D/2013, is illogical and not prudent. The promotion and seniority of officials of Police are being regulated in accordance with the prescribed criteria/ rules. Unless and until these criteria are not fulfilled no one, can be promoted to the next higher rank.

6. That the act of answering respondents by not recommending/ considering the name of appellant in the DPC held on 05.07.2013, were quite legal and in accordance with law/ rules. The ACRs of appellant for the period mentioned above were missing so he was not recommended by the committee to be promoted to the rank of Senior Clerk. No illegality has been committed by the respondents while dealing the instant appellant. As discussed above, the instant Service Appeal may be dismissed on the following Grounds.

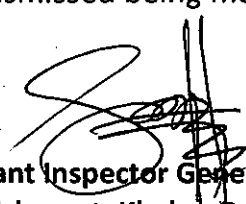

GROUND:-

- A. Incorrect. The impugned Notification No. 17479-99/ E-III dated 22.07.2013, passed by Competent Authority are quite legal and as per law/ rules. The appellant has been considered and deferred in the DPC held on 05.07.2013.
- B. Incorrect. As explained at Para No. A of Grounds.
- C. Incorrect. the impugned order is quite legal.
- D. Incorrect. As already explained at Para No. 3 of Facts.
- E. Incorrect. Appellant has been treated fairly and no discrimination has been done to the appellant by answering respondents. The ACRs of appellant for the period mentioned above were missing at the time of DPC, hence, he was deferred due to incomplete ACRs.
- F. That the respondent may also be allowed to raise additional grounds at the time of arguments.

PRAYER:-

In view of the above, it is humbly prayed that on acceptance of Para-wise comments, the instant Service Appeal may kindly be dismissed being meritless.

remain present in the office or to perform any duty. Elaborating his point further, Learned Counsel maintains that suspended official could not be expected to sustain himself and his family without doing some other work. The respondents had no moral or legal authority to demand his presence in office except when he might be required to attend office in connection with the departmental proceedings. Learned Counsel vehemently maintains that the impugned orders were fit to be set aside.

8. Appearing on behalf of the respondents, Learned District Attorney relies on the written objections filed by them. He particularly referred to the fact that the appellant had even earlier been censured twice on account of his absence from duty for two days in May, 1988 and 13 days in March, 1988 apart from the penalty of censure on account of his failure in disposal of important papers, in addition to the reduction in pay by two stages on account of his substance from duty from 15-8-1988 to 26-8-1988. Learned District Attorney maintained that the work and conduct of the appellant had remained unsatisfactory. He, therefore, urged that the appeal should be set aside.

9. I have heard the learned counsel for the appellant and have taken note of the points raised by the Learned District Attorney. I am afraid the scope of the efficiency & Discipline Rules does not include consideration of the entire past of a civil servant in a given case of misconduct on his part. A such an exercise could alone be conducted while considering the case of a civil servant for retirement under Section 12(i) of the Punjab Civil Servants Act, 1974.

10. The appellant concedes that he had regretted his inability to perform duty during the period of his suspension. Such conduct was not in fact worthy of a conscientious civil servant. He is indeed fit to be censured again on this account. However, I am of the view that the penalty of removal from services imposed on him was apparently disproportionate to the ungratifying stance taken by the appellant when he refused to perform duties while he was under suspension. A suspended official could not legally be asked to perform duty unless he was re-instated in service. Punishing him with removal from service cannot, therefore, be sustained in law.

11. In view of the foregoing, I accept the appeal, set aside the impugned orders whereby the appellant was removed from service, re-instate him in service and impose upon him the penalty of censure on account of the indiscretion shown by him as a civil servant. The period of his absence from duty from the date he was removed from service till he resumes duty shall be treated as leave of the kind due.

12. The parties are left to bear their own costs.

JUDGMENT

Roshan Ali Mangi, Member.--The facts leading to this case are that the appellant Mr. Amin Jan joined the T&T Department in the year 1973. He was promoted to the post of A.D.E (B-17) w.e.f. 26.12.1983 on 5.7.1988. A seniority list of A.D.E. was circulated in which the name of the appellant was placed at Sl. No. 25. The name of his junior Mr. Muhammad Afzal, respondent No. 4 on the other hand appeared at Sl. No. 26. At such the appellant was shown senior to respondents No. 4.

2. The D.P.C. was convened in the year 1988, in which promotion to the post of regular D.Es (B-18) was considered. Out of them 15 were promoted, vide order dated 19.10.1988. But the appellant alongwith some other officers, were deferred. Respondents No. 4 to 8 although being junior to the appellant were among those who were promoted.

3. Another meeting of DPC was held in 1991. The appellant along with others was promoted to B-18 on 15.6.1991. In this promotion order, the names of the respondents No. 9 to 11 were placed over and above the appellant, although in B-17 he was senior to them.

4. Apprehending further promotion, the appellant submitted departmental representation on 11.10.1995 to the competent authority praying therein to allow him to keep intact in original seniority of A.D.E. in B-17, and to antedate his promotion to B-18 w.e.f. 19.10.1988, the date of promotion to B-18 of his junior officers, and deferment of appellant with consequential financial benefits. But his appeal was rejected by a letter dated 3.7.1996. Hence the present appeal before the Tribunal.

5. Pleading the case of the appellant, his learned counsel argued that appellant's rejection order dated 3.7.96 was liable to be set aside and he was entitled to be given seniority in the cadre of Divisional Engineers, w.e.f. 19.10.88 when he was deferred and his juniors were promoted on the grounds that in the year 1988, when besides his seniors, respondents No. 4 to 8 who were his juniors were promoted, the appellant was not superseded but was deferred. Under the general principles of seniority printed at page 225 onward in 1989 ESTACODE, para 'B' provided as follows :-

"B. Departmental Promotion.--(i) Officers who are approved by the Selection Board/DPC for promotion to the higher grade on an earlier date shall rank senior to those who are approved on a later date, provided that :-

- (a) an officer eligible for promotion who is inadvertently omitted from consideration in the original reference and is superseded, when he is subsequently considered and approved for promotion, he will take his seniority with the original batch.
- (b) when in a single reference, the Selection Board/DPC are asked to recommend more than one person and the recommendation of the Selection Board/DPC is held up in respect of one or more such persons for want of complete papers etc., or for reasons beyond the control of the persons concerned, the recommendation of the Selection Board/DPC in respect of such persons when made subsequently will be deemed to have been made on the date when the recommendation in respect of the original batch was made."

6. It was pleaded that the appellant was not superseded in 1988, but on account of deferment, his promotion was withheld. On his promotion to B-18 in 1991 he had regained his seniority and date of promotion w.e.f. 19.10.1988 when his juniors namely respondents No. 4 to 8 were promoted.

7. He therefore, prayed that under the circumstances and position of law and rules stated above, appellant's promotion shall be deemed to have taken place w.e.f. 19.10.88 with consequential benefits, and he shall stand senior to Muhammad Afzal Saleem, respondent No. 4.

8. The written objections have been filed on behalf of the respondents. It has been contended that the appellant entered in the erstwhile T&T Department (now PTCL) as an Engineering Supervisor on 15.4.1973. Subsequently he was appointed as Assistant Engineer (BPS-16) against direct recruitment quota during January, 1979. During October, 1983, he was considered alongwith others for his promotion to the post of Asstt. D.E. (B-17) against the quota reserved for T&T employees possessing degree in Engineering or equivalent. The DPC did not, however, recommend him alongwith others eight employees due to their technical knowledge being not upto the mark. Later on in compliance to the judgment passed by the Federal Service Tribunal in appeal filed by Mr. Ashraf Ahmed Khan, one of the Asstt. Engineers, who was not recommended by the DPC for promotion in B-17 for the reason referred to above, he was promoted as Asstt. Divisional Engineer (B-17) w.e.f. 26.12.83.

9. The appellant was considered for promotion to the post of D.E. (B-18) alongwith others during the year 1988, but he was not cleared by the relevant DPC due to he being under probation/training at that time, and he also did not qualify the professional test of A.D.E. (B-17) which is the prerequisite for promotion to the post of Divisional Engineer (B-18).

10. On termination of his probation and after having qualified the professional test of Asstt. Divn. Engineer (B-17), the appellant was reconsidered and cleared by the relevant DPC and promoted to the post of D.E. (B-18) w.e.f. 15.6.91.

11. It has been argued that antedation of promotion is not allowable under Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 1973. According to the written arguments of the appellant promotion of an employee takes place w.e.f. the date of approval of the competent authority.

12. The appellant after having fulfilled the requisite conditions of eligibility, was promoted to the post of D.E. (B-18) w.e.f. 15.6.91. So his seniority in B-18 is to take place from the date of his promotion as prescribed vide para 8(4) of the Civil Servants Act, 1973.

13. With these submissions, it has been contended that the prayer of the appellant is not tenable under the law and rules. He has been correctly assigned his seniority in B-18 from the date of his promotion in B-18 which is strictly in accordance with the law and rules. Hence his appeal be dismissed.

14. When the case came up for regular hearing, the learned counsel for respondent raised the point of limitation, although such a point was not taken up vide written objections. Of course, he did not have objection as regard the facts of the case were concerned. He admitted them fully.

15. As regards limitation, the learned counsel for the respondents stated that it had two aspects - one legal and other factual. As regards factual, there was neither original order, nor the appellate order in the field. As regards the former, the appellant was deferred in 1988 and promoted to B-18 on 15.6.1991. He did not agitate for the antidation of his promotion. In other words, he had accepted that position at that time. As such he cannot now agitate at this belated time. He further argued that the appellant submitted his representation for antidation of his promotion and seniority on 11 Oct' 1995, which was replied on 3 July, 1996. As a matter of fact he should have come to the Tribunal after expiry of mandatory period of 90 days. But chose to wait and that period was over. And approached the Tribunal much later. In other words he had accepted the position. Now it was too late to agitate. As such his appeal was clearly time barred.

16. The learned counsel for the respondents raised yet another objection i.e. the impugned order dated 3rd July, 1996 was not addressed to the appellant. Besides, he also objected that departmental appeal was not addressed to Board of Directors, who constituted the appellate authority. Concluding his arguments, the learned counsel contended that if the case judged on the legal ground, it has no legal base. It was time barred, as the cause arose in 1991, when the appellant got promotion, however, he made an appeal although not to proper authority in 1995 and approached the Tribunal in 1996, as such the appellant's appeal was patently time barred, hence liable to be dismissed.

17. The learned counsel for the appellant on the other hand took position that the appeal can not be dismissed merely on the grounds of limitation if the facts of the case have merit. In this regard he quoted the following judgments of the Supreme Court in support of his stand :-

- (i) 1986 SCMR 1213-1216
- (ii) 1987 SCMR 367
- (iii) 1990 SCMR 1356
- (iv) 1970 SCMR 170
- (v) 1991 SCMR 640
- (vi) 1995 SCMR P. 16
- (vii) 1996 SCMR 850 (854).

18. As regards, the objection of the learned counsel of the respondents pertaining to non addressing of the impugned order to the appellant, the learned counsel for the appellant pleaded that the said impugned order contained in para 3, which mentions as: "The officer may please be informed accordingly". From this he contended that the appellant was informed and accordingly he took the action of filing appeal before the Tribunal. As such the learned counsel for the respondents' objection was not tenable.

19. We have heard the parties at length and perused the relevant record.

20. The main issue to resolve is whether or not the appellant is entitled to his original seniority on promotion i.e. with effect from the date of promotion of his juniors, under the law when he was deferred, but not superseded. As a matter of fact if the appellant was considered to be at fault as learned counsel for the respondents contended, when he did not agitate on his promotion to reckon his original seniority the department cannot be absolved from its duties to have given the appellant his original seniority on his own either.

21. We find that the appellant was deferred, due to whatever reason, during the consideration of promotion of the appellant alongwith others in 1986 by the DPC. However, later on he was promoted to B-18 during the meeting of DPC held in 1991. It is a settled law that has also been quoted by the learned counsel for the appellant above in para 5, that when an employee is deferred on promotion, he gets seniority from the date his juniors are promoted. It was, therefore, incumbent upon the department to have allowed the appellant his seniority on promotion to next higher grade, from the date his juniors were promoted. He was not superseded, but deferred due to reasons beyond his control. That does not forfeit his right to reckon his seniority from the date his juniors were promoted.

22. The learned counsel's objection prima facie appears justified when he contended as to why the appellant did not agitate at that time. We at the moment agree with him. But at the same time we are of the opinion that the department too had erred not to have given the original seniority to the appellant, as he was deferred not superseded, hence on his promotion he was entitled to his original seniority in accordance with law automatically. We asked the respondent department, was it not supposed to assign the seniority to the appellant on their own, on his promotion from the date his juniors were promoted? The learned counsel for the respondents replied that Tribunal was supposed to decide such issues. Any how if he did agitate at that time, it does not forfeit his right to reckon his original seniority. It is against the principles of natural justice and fairplay to kill the vested right of a civil servant on the alter of limitation. In this regard the learned counsel for the appellant has quoted number of judgments of the Supreme Court in which it has been held that appeals be not dismissed on the ground of limitation, when the facts of the case have merits. And we subscribe to that law and condone the delay if at all caused under the circumstances.

23. For the reasons recorded above, we accept the appeal and direct the department, that the appellant shall reckon his seniority from the date his juniors were promoted, with all consequential benefits.

24. No order as to costs.

25. Parties be informed.

Appeal accepted.
