1. to promote the appellant under the examination rules 1950, from inspector to assistant Excise and Taxation Officer (AETO), with all back consequential benefit under the law, as other candidates have already been promoted through judgment passed by this Hon'ble Tribunal ,in service appeal No.201/2014 under titled "Muhammad Qamar Versus Chief Secretary of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa etc" by order issued/ passed by the respondents dated 10.11.2016.
2. to waive off the condition of higher standard and grant relaxation in paper from higher standard (excise law-paper-II) as other candidates have already granted the same relief.
3. That notification dated 30.03.2010, may kindly be declared null and void upon the rights of the appellant as it is in conflict with examination rules of 1950 and the impugned order passed by the respondent No.2 vide dated 30.05.2019 may also be set aside.

4. That the seniority of the appellant may kindly be consider from the date when the appellant apply for his promotion.
5. That order may kindly be passed, that the appellant may be treated similarly as other candidates have already been promoted under the law, being employees of the same department and the name of the appellants may be in listed in working paper /due promotion list for DPC.
6. Any the relief, the Honourable Court may deem fit for the safe administration of justice

Respectfully Sheweth:-

1. That the appellant was appointed as inspector in BPS-14 in the department of respondent No.2, 3 on 23.03.2002. (Appointment letter is attached).

2. That the appellant appeared in the year 2007 for promotion to Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer (A.E.T.O), in departmental examination and passed two papers in higher grade and two paper in lower grade, 50% marks.
3. That Mr. Muhammad Qamar, Nizakat Ali, and Falak Naz, inspectors in the same department filed a Service Appeal, for promotion from inspectors to Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer (AETO) who were in the same footing as the appellant, the appeals of the said inspectors have been disposed of, with the direction to respondents, the cases of appellants may be considered under the rule 7 (3) of examination rules 1950, and on the light of said judgment, the respondents promoted the above mentioned three inspectors to (AETO), under order, dated 10.11.2016.
4. That the appellant filed departmental appeal to the respondents, for his promotion to Assistant Excise & Taxation Officer (AETO), on 27.12.2016, under the law to similar treatment with the appellant but no response/reply has been received from the respondents hence the service appeal filed on 06.04.2017, which was disposed off by the Hon'ble Tribunal on 23.11.2018, with the direction to respondents to decide the departmental appeal of the appellant as pending, within 90 days from the date of receipt of the judgment through speaking order then respondent No.2 decided the departmental Appeal and rejected the prayer of the appellant on 30.05.2019, hence this appeal on the following amongst the other grounds:

GROUND S:

- A. That the rules dated 30.03.2010 is against law and justice, therefore, not tenable and as this Hon'ble Tribunal has already been directed to the respondents to comply the rules of examination 1950, rule-7 (3). Further that the impugned order passed by the respondent No.2, vide dated 30.05.2019 is against law and is liable to be set aside.
- B. That the appellant is legally entitled for the same and similar treatment as the other employees have already been treated under order dated 10.11.2016, passed by the respondents, in the light of judgment passed by this Hon'ble Tribunal.

- C. That the appellant is also entitled for the similar treatment as the employees of the same department as Sub Inspectors have already been promoted to inspector under Rule-7 (3) of examination rule 1950, vide order dated 22.01.2010 and 13.08.2012 and granted relaxation.
- D. That every one is equal before law and every one treated equally in accordance with law and the respondents are violating the fundamental rights embodied in the constitution.
- E. That the appellant passed two papers in high grade and tow paper in lower grade (50%)
- F. That the appellant has been kept deprived from his legal right of promotion in an arbitrary manner under the grabbers of rules of 30.03.2010, which are not sustainable and contradictory with the examination rules 1950.
- G. That under the seniority list of inspector vide dated 31.12.2016, the appellant is in serial No.9, and is very much entitle for promotion to (AETO), while in working paper/list of candidate as inspectors, due for promotion, the name of the appellant has not been mentioned/listed, is against the rule of law and justice and juniors have been promoted.

H. That the rules dated 30.03.2010, has not applied to the appellant as the appellant has passed an departmental examination before promulgation the said impugned rules.

I. That the respondents are continuously denying the principles embodied in judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court i.e. 2018 SCMR 380, 2009 SCMR 1, etc as committed contempt of judgment of Supreme Court as everyone bound to obey the judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court of Pakistan under article 198 of the Constitution of Pakistan 1973.

J. That the appellant has already reserved one chance of examination, while instead of that the respondent No.2 decided the departmental appeal and awarded once hence of examination which mean no relief.

K. That some other ground may be adduced at the time of arguments with the permission of this Honourable Court.

It is, therefore most humbly prayed that on acceptance of this appeal, the respondents may kindly be directed

- 1. To promote the appellant under the examination rules 1950, from inspector to assistant Excise and Taxation Officer (AETO), with all back consequential benefit under the law, as other candidates have already been promoted through judgment passed by this Hon'ble Tribunal ,in service appeal No.201/2014 under titled "Muhammad Qamar Versus Chief Secretary of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa etc" by order issued/ passed by the respondents dated 10.11.2016.
- 2. To waive off the condition of higher standard and grant relaxation in paper from higher standard (excise law-paper-II) as other candidates home already granted the same relief.
- 3. That notification dated 30.03.2010, may kindly be declared null and void upon the rights of the appellant as it is in conflict with examination rules of 1950 and the impugned order passed by the respondent No.2 vide dated 30.05.2019 may also be set aside.

4. That the seniority of the appellant may kindly be consider from the date when the appellant apply for his promotion.
5. That order may kindly be passed, that the appellant may be treated similarly as other candidates have already been promoted under the law, being employee of the same department and the name of the appellants may be in listed in working paper /due promotion list for DPC.

Service Appeal No. 201/2014

Muhammad Qamar, Versus The Chief Secretary, KPK
Peshawar and others.

JUDGMENT

PIR-BAKHSH-SLAH-MEMBER Appellant with counsel (Mr. Muhammad Asif Yousafzai, Advocate) and Government Pleader (Mr. Muhammad Jan) with Arbab Khalid Mehmood, Legal Advisor for the respondents present.

2. According to para-1 of the appeal, the appellant joined the department in the year, 1980, later on promoted as Senior Clerk in 1994, as Inspector in the year, 2001, who is at S.No. 8 per seniority list of 2011. That the appellant has also passed his departmental examination.
That the departmental examination for promotion to various posts is conducted under the Examination Rules, 1950, which are still in the field and operational and according to which rules Inspector & Sub Inspectors has to pass this exam in lower standard (50%) respectively for promotion to the rank of Inspector and Asstt. Excise & Taxation Officer. But the respondent-department notified new rules vide notification dated 30.3.2010, according to which lower standard of departmental examination was replaced with higher standard. That this decision being anomalous and contradictory with the Examination Rules, 1950, the appellant made application for consideration of the departmental authority, which was forwarded and recommended by the Director General, to the Secretary, Excise & Taxation vide his letter dated 11.09.2013. However, the same was rejected by respondent No. 2 vide his letter dated 23.1.2014, hence this appeal under Section 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974.

3. Arguments heard and record perused.

4. It was noted that the standard for departmental examination for the post of Sub Inspector and Inspector, Excise & Taxation was lower standard per Rules of 1950 which has been raised to higher standard per impugned rules of 2010. It was further noted that per rule 7 (3) of the rules of 1950 the provincial government in case of Asstt. Excise & Taxation Officer and Commissioner, E&T KPK, in case of the Sub Inspector and Inspector can waive the requirement of this examination. Fortunately, this discretion has already been exercised by the government vide its notification dated 22.6.2010 and 13.08.2012 even after the enforcement of the rules of 2010, hence the contention of the respondent-department that new rules of 2010 has altogether replaced Examination Rules, 1950 does not seem to be correct. That rules of 2010 may be interfered, with, this Tribunal, instead in the stated situation, would like to remit the case to the respondent-department to examine case of the appellants on the analogy of the officials of said notifications and if otherwise, fit for such relaxation than by relaxing the requirement of departmental examination under Rule-7(3) of Examination Rules, 1950, the case of the appellants may be considered. The appeal is disposed off accordingly. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.

5. This judgment will also dispose of two other connected appeals No. 202/2014 Nizakat Ali and 203/2014 Falak Nawaz, having common questions of law, in the same manner.

Subject: PROMOTION TO THE RANK OF AETO.

Respected Sir,

It is respectfully submitted that I have passed two papers of departmental examination in higher standard and two papers in lower standard. It has come into my notice that I am being superseded because of having passed two papers in lower standard.

The Honorable Service Tribunal KPK, Peshawar, in its judgment (copy enclosed) announced on 08-12-2015 in response to appeal No 201/2014, 202/2014 and 203/2014, filed by Muhammad Qamar, Nizakat Ali, and Falak Nawaz respectively, directed the respondent department to consider the appellants for promotion by relaxing the requirement of departmental examination under rule 7 (3) of examination rules 1950, as this discretion had already been exercised by the government vide its notifications dated 22-06-2010 and 13-08-2012 even after the enforcement of the rules of 2010.

It is, therefore, requested that as my case is of the same nature, I may not please be superseded and promoted as AETO as per my seniority.

JUDGMENT

AHMAD HASSAN, MEMBER.-

This judgment shall dispose of the instant service appeal as well as connected service appeal no. 737/2017 titled Javed ur Rehman as similar question of law and facts are involved therein.

2. Arguments of the learned counsel for the parties heard and record perused.

FACTS

3. The short facts of the case are that the appellant has prayed for promotion from the post of Inspector to Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer (AETO) in relaxation of Rule 7(3) of the Departmental Examination Rules, 1950. He preferred an undated departmental appeal, which was not responded within the stipulated period, hence, the instant service appeal on 06.04.2017.

ARGUMENTS

4. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that he appeared in the departmental promotion examination for the post of Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer in 2006 and passed all the papers in higher grade, except Excise Law Paper-II in lower grade (50% marks). He made another attempt in 2009 but could not improve his previous position. That Mr. Muhammad Qamar, Nizakat Ali and Falak Naz, Inspectors serving in the said department filed service appeal for promotion from the rank of inspector to Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer, as per Rule 7(3) of the Departmental Examination Rules 1950. This Tribunal vide judgment dated 08.12.2015 this Tribunal remitted the case to the respondents for examination on the analogy of previous precedent and grant of relaxation contained in the said rules provided the case was otherwise fit for the same. The respondents vide order dated 10.11.2016 waived off the condition of higher grade in favour of the above appellants. The appellant through his departmental appeal also sought similar relief but was not responded within the stipulated period, hence, the instant service appeal. Reliance was placed on case law reported as 2018 SCMR 330, 2009 SCMR 1 and judgment of this Tribunal dated 14.09.2017 passed in service appeal no. 293/2017.

5. On the other hand learned Deputy District Attorney argued that according to the Excise and Taxation Service Rules, 2010 passing departmental examination in higher grade was mandatory for promotion to the post of Assistant Excise and Taxation officer. The appellant did not fulfill this condition, hence, was not eligible for promotion. An undated departmental appeal was forwarded by the Excise and Taxation Officer, Kohat on 17.12.2016, which was badly time barred. No application for condonation of delay had been submitted by the appellant. On this score alone the present appeal was not maintainable.

CONCLUSION

6] Having gone through the record, it transpired that though the appellant was aggrieved of notification dated 30.03.2010 but did not challenge it in time. Even his departmental appeal was silent on this account. His departmental appeal was badly barred by time so strictly speaking, present service appeal was not maintainable. Learned counsel for the appellant failed to justify the delay caused in preferring the departmental appeal.

7] On the other hand, learned counsel for the appellant relied on judgment of this Tribunal dated 08.12.2015 and 14.09.2017 in which relief was granted to the appellants by the respondents. The principle of consistency and parity demanded identical treatment should have been extended to the appellant by the respondents to meet the ends of justice. Our viewpoint is further augmented by 1996 SCMR 1185 in which the august Supreme Court of Pakistan held that:-

"If the Service Tribunal or Supreme Court decides a point of law relating to the terms of civil servant which covers not only the case of civil servant who litigated, but also of other civil servant, who may not taken any legal proceedings, in such a case, the dictates and rule of good governance demands that the benefits of such judgment by Service Tribunal/Supreme Court be extended to other civil servant, who may not be parties to the litigation instead of compelling them to approach the Service Tribunal or any other forum".

EXAMINATION IN THE LIGHT OF JUDGMENT OF KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA SERVICE TRIBUNAL
DATED 23-11-2018.

Respected Sir,

It is most humbly submitted that I had preferred a departmental appeal on 16-03-2017 for waiving off two papers of departmental examination (Taxation Law & Property Tax and Civil Law) which I had passed in lower standard on the basis of the relief as was given to Muhammad Qamar, Nazakat Ali (Inspectors of this department) in the light of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Judgment dated 08-12-2015. But my appeal was not decided and I was compelled to file appeal in the said Service Tribunal. The judgment of the Service Tribunal dated 23-11-2018 in connection with my appeal No. 737/2017 is enclosed herewith.

It is, therefore, requested that I may please be promoted as per my seniority in the light of the above said judgments of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal.

07.05.2019	APPEAL NO. 340/2017, TITLED "JAVED SULTAN VS EXCISE &amp; TAXATION" APPEAL NO. 737 OF 2017 MR. JAVED UR REHMAN VS GOVT. OF KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA This order shall dispose of the identical service appeals Nos. 340/2017 and 737/2017 in respect of Mr. Javed Sultan and Javed Ur Rehman, Inspectors respectively which were remanded back to the department for decision by Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal vide its judgment dated 23.11.2018. In compliance with judgment of the Court, both the appellants were summoned and heard personally. The appellants prayed for waiver from passing the Departmental Examination in Higher Standard in relaxation of Rule 7(3) of the Departmental Examination Rules 1950, which is mandatory for promotion and the appellants failed to achieve the required standard/grade in the examination despite giving them more than three (3) chances (Javed Sultan - 4 chances and Javed Ur Rehman - 5 chances). The appellants claimed that at the time of exam in 2006 the rules were in their favour. However, later on at the time of processing of promotion cases the Rules, were amended and required passing the exam in higher grades. However, according to them some of their colleagues, who were in the same situation as the appellants, were given waiver of Departmental Examination by the competent authority on the direction of Hon'ble Court and later on they were promoted to the post of AETO, on the same analogy, the appellants preferred appeals for the subject waiver. Representative of the department stated that the plea of the appellants is not based on facts. Though under Rule 10-A of the Departmental Examination Rules 1950, if any officer fails to pass the Departmental Examination within the prescribed period of two years, he shall be liable for removal from service. However, the department was generous enough and did not take action rather provided them special chance alongwith their other colleagues to qualify the examination. But instead of availing the chance, they absented themselves and preferred appeals in the Court for waiver of exams. Moreover the claimed wavier was done much before the case of appellant were received for promotion. Representative of the department further stated that the grant of exemption defeats the very spirit of the Departmental Examination and will set a bad precedent and open a pathway to others, which will result in increasing litigation cases.

After threadbare discussion, the chair observed that it revealed that the appellant claims for exemption/waiver of exam on the analogy of their other colleagues who were given waiver and were later on promoted did not carry weightage and are not covered under the law. Moreover, their contemporaries were given only chance to reappear in exam.

Keeping in view the above, the chair decided to dismiss the appeals regarding waiver in light of recommendation of the Director General, Excise, Taxation & Narcotics Control and merits of the case under the rules. At the same time, it was decided to allow the appellants to avail another chance to appear in the Departmental Examination as and when scheduled in the light of rules.
