(Copies of the appointment order dated 19.04.2014, Medical Certificate and Arrival Report are attached as Annexure A, B & C)

- 2. That ever since his appointment the appellant has performed his duties as assigned with zeal and devotion and there was no compliant what so ever regarding his performance.
- 3. That while serving in the said capacity, without serving upon the appellant any notice charge sheet or show cause, quite illegally he has been terminated from serve vide order dated 19.01.2015, allegedly on the ground of absence from duty. (Copy of the termination order dated 19.01.2015, is attached as Annexure D)
- 4. That the appellant also submitted his departmental appeal on 06.02.2015, however the same has not been responded despite the lapse of 90 days statutory period. (Copy of the departmental appeal dated 06.02.2015, is attached as Annexure E)
- 5. That the impugned order is illegal, unlawful against law and fact hence liable to be set aside inter alia on the following grounds:

GROUNDS OF DEPARTMENTAL APPEAL.

- A. That the appellant have not been treated in accordance with law hence his rights secured and guaranteed under the law are badly violated.
- B. That no proper procedure has been followed before the termination of service of the appellant. He has not been served with charge sheet or statement of allegations nor any inquiry has been conducted to probe into the charges, thus the whole proceedings are nullity in the eye of law and an order based on such defective proceedings is liable to be set aside.
- C. That the appellant has not been provided opportunity of personal hearing before the termination of his service, hence the appellant has been condemned unheard.
- D. That no charge sheet or statement of allegations as prescribed under the law and rules has been served upon the appellant hence the appellant has not been provided fair opportunity to defend himself against the charges leveled.

- E. That the appellant has never been served with any absence notice before awarding the termination of his service nor any publication has been made thus the order of termination from service is against the principles of natural justice.
- F. That the word termination from service is alien to service laws, there is no such penalty prescribed under E & D Rules, 2011, as such the order of termination from service is not tenable under the law and is liable to be set aside on this score alone.
- G. That the impugned order is not a speaking order and is thus violative of the section 24-A of the General Clauses Act.
- H. That the appellant duly applied for the post of Naib Qasid and was appointed by the competent authority after observing all codal formalities. The appellant duly took over charge of his post, performed his duties for more then 3 years, as such valuable rights have been created in his favour the same cannot be taken away illegally with one stroke of pen.
- I. That the appellant has never committed any act or omission which could be termed as misconduct albeit he has been terminated from service. Moreover the allegation of continuous long absence is also baseless and unfounded.
- J. That the impugned order is politically motivated and is passed under the political pressure of the local MPA. The appellant have been victimized for the sole reason of belonging to a particular political party.
- K. That the appellant has an unblemished and spotless service career at his credit, the penalty imposed upon him is harsh and liable to be set aside.

L. That the appellant is jobless since his illegal termination from service

M. That the appellant seeks the permission of this Honorable Tribunal to rely on additional ground at the hearing of this appeal.

It is, therefore, humbly prayed that on acceptance of this Service Appeal the order dated 19.01.2015, may kindly be set aside and the appellant may be reinstated into service with all back wages and benefits of service.

Departmental Appeal against the order dated 19.01.2015, whereby the applicant has been terminated from service.

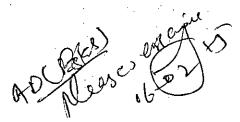

Prayer in Departmental Appeal.

On acceptance of this Departmental Appeal order dated 19.01.2015,, may kindly be set aside and the undersigned may be reinstated into service with all back benefits.

Respected Sir,

I very humbly submit the following few lines for your kind and sympathetic consideration:

- 1. That the appellant was initially appointed as Naib Qasid on 19.04.2011. I was medically examined and when found fit I also took over charge of my post and started performing my duties.
- 2. That ever since from my appointment I have performed my duties as assigned to me with zeal and devotion and have never given any chance of complaint to my superiors regarding my performance.
- 3. That while serving in the said capacity without serving upon me any notice, charge sheet or show cause notice I have been terminated from service vide order dated 19.01.2015, allegedly on the ground of absence from duty.
- 4. That the order whereby my service has been terminated is illegal, unlawful against law and fact hence liable to be set aside inter alia on the following grounds:

То

GROUNDS OF DEPARTMENTAL APPEAL.

A. That I have not been treated in accordance with law hence my rights secured and guaranteed under the law are badly violated.

B. That no procedure has been followed before the termination of my services I have not been served with any absence notice, charge sheet or show cause notice nor any inquiry has been conducted, thus the impugned order is illegal and void abenatio.

C. That I have not been provided opportunity of personal hearing before awarding me the penalty hence I have been condemned unheard.

D. That no charge sheet or statement of allegations as prescribed under the law and rules has been served upon me hence I have not been provided fair opportunity to defend my self against the charges leveled.

E. That I have never been served with any absence notice before nor any publication has been made before the termination of my services on the ground of absence.

F. That the word termination from service is alien to service laws, there is no such penalty prescribed under E & D Rules, 2011, as such the order of termination from service is not tenable under the law and is liable to be set aside on this score alone.

G. That no period of absence has been shown in the impugned order, the impugned order is thus not a speaking order and is violative of the section 24-A of the General Clauses Act.

H. That I duly applied for the post of Naib Qasid and was appointed by the competent authority after observing all codial formalities. I duly took over charge of my post, performed my duties for more then 3 years, as such valuable rights have been created in my favour the same cannot be taken away illegally with one stroke of pen. I. That I have never committed any act or omission which could be termed as misconduct albeit I have been terminated from service. I have never absented my self willfully. Moreover the allegation of continuous long absence is also baseless and unfounded.

J. That the impugned order is politically motivated and is passed under the political pressure of the local MPA. I have been victimized for the sole reason of belonging to a particular political party.

K. That I have a long and spotless service career at my credit, the penalty imposed upon me is harsh and liable to be set aside.

L. That I am jobless since my illegal termination from service.

It is, therefore, humbly prayed that on acceptance of this Departmental Appear the order dated 19.01.2015, may kindly be set aside and the undersigned may be reinstated into service with all back benefits.

Before the Service Tribunal Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar Service Appeal No.597 / 2015

Mr. Mr. FAzal Akbar (Ex-Naib Qasid) APPELLANT

VERSUS

- 1. Secretary to Govt. Social Welfare Special Education & Women Empowerment Department, office at Opposite Islamia College, Jamrud Road, Peshawar.
- 2. Director Social Welfare, Special Education and Women Empowerment Department (Respondents)

PARA WISE COMMENTS BY DIRECTORATE OF SOCIAL WELFARE

PRE-LIMINARY OBJECTIVES:

- 1. That the Appellant has no cause of action.
- 2. That the Appeal is not maintainable in its present form.
- 3. That the Appeal is bad for non-Joinder of necessary and misjoinder of unnecessary parties.
- 4. That the Applicant has been estopped by his own conduct to file the Appeal.
- 5. That Appellant has not come to this Tribunal with clean hand.

FACTS

1. Correct

- Incorrect, hence denied. The appellant proved problematic throughout his service. He was a habitual duty evader and used to remain absent from duty for weeks and months without proper and prior permission of the competent authority. A number of explanations and letter of Absence from duty were served upon him but in vain (Annex-A, B, C). His salary was also stopped to compel him to join his duties.
- 3. Incorrect hence denied. As stated in para-2 supra the appellant was a habitual duty evader and used to remain absent from duty without prior permission of the competent authority. The appellant never informed either through telephone or in written regarding his absence.
- 4. Incorrect and not admitted. A proper notice was issued and communicated to the appellant at his home address (Annex-C) to join his duties. Since the appellant failed to arrive for duty with in the specified period, his services were therefore terminated after fulfilling all the codal formalities.

5. The order dated 19-01-2015 is legal, lawful, in accordance with law an evident from the details given in the preceding paras.

Grounds of Departmental Appeal

- A. Incorrect hence denied. The appellant has been treated in accordance with Law as evident from the factual position narrated in the preceding paras hence question of violation of rights does not arise at all.
- B. Incorrect hence denied. Proper procedure was adopted and all codal formalities were fulfilled before removing the appellant from service as evident from the details given in preceding paras of the facts.
- C. Incorrect hence denied. Vide letter No. DSW/5174-78 dated 5/11/2014 and letter No. Admin/DSW/7328-36 dated 05/01/2015 (Annex-A,C), the appellant was directed to explain the reason for being absent without getting any prior permission of the competent authority. All the codal formalities were fulfilled by respondents and on the basis of willful absence the appellant was terminated from his services (Annex D).
- D. As per para 4 mentioned above.
- E. Incorrect hence denied. The factual position has been narrated in Para-2 and 4 of the facts.
- F. Incorrect hence denied. Under Section-09 of the E & D rules 2011, the competent authority is authorized to impose major penalty on the absentee (Annex-E)
- G. Incorrect hence denied. The order dated 19-01-2015 was issued in accordance with the rules and policy of the Govt.
- H. Correct to the extent that the appellant was appointed after fulfilling all codal formalities and similarly he was removed from service after fulfilling all codal formalities. Since the order dated 19-01-2015 was legal and in accordance with the rules, the question of illegality therefore does not arise at all.

- I. Incorrect hence denied. The factual position has been explained in preceding paras.
- J. Incorrect, the appellant has admitted to be an activist of a particular political party which itself is a gross mis-conduct as per rules. The allegation that his removal from service was due to political pressure is baseless and carries no weight.
- K. Incorrect hence denied. The factual position has been explained in para-2, 3 & 4 of the facts.
- L. The appellant was terminated after observing all codal formalities.
- M. The respondents seek the permission of this honorable Tribunal to rely on additional grounds at the time of hearing of this appeal. In view of the above, it is prayed that the appeal being devoid of any merit, may graciously be dismissed.
