JUDGMENT

MUHAMMAD AMIN KHAN KUNDI, MEMBER: - This appeal has been filed under Section-4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 against the order dated 22.01.2015 whereby the appellant was dismissed from service as well as against the order dated 18.03.2015 whereby his departmental appeal was also rejected.

2. Facts of the case as per memo of the appeal are that the appellant was serving in Police Force of Frontier Reserve Police of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa as Constable and was performing his duty regularly. That on 09.10.2014 when the appellant was going from duty to home, In the way he met with accident wherein the appellant sustained injury to his left leg and fractured of the three fingers of left leg. That the appellant was under treatment of the doctor who advised bed rest to the appellant, therefore, the appellant applied to his superior for medical leave through his colleague namely Hifal constable and the said constable informed the appellant that the office incharge has recommended the leave of the appellant and the appellant was advised to continue his treatment, therefore, the appellant as a matter of compulsion did not attend his duty. That after recovery of the health, the appellant came for duty but he was informed that he was dismissed from service vide order dated 22.01.2015. That the said order was passed without any proper inquiry. That the appellant also preferred a departmental appeal but the same was also dismissed and after conveying the order of the departmental appeal the appellant filed present service appeal in time.

3. The respondents were summoned who contested the appeal by filing written reply/comments.

4. Learned counsel for the appellant contended that the appellant was serving in Police Department and was performing his duty regularly. It was further contended that on 09.10.2014 when the appellant was going from duty to home, In the way he met with accident wherein the appellant sustained injury to his left leg and fractured of the three fingers of left leg. It was further contended that the absence of the appellant was not willful but he was under treatment and the medical officer also advised him for bed rest and in this respect copy of medical prescriptions of the doctor containing advice for bed rest is available on record. It was further contended that neither proper inquiry was conducted nor the appellant was given any opportunity of hearing. It was further contended that the order of the departmental appeal was not conveyed to him in time and when communicated to the appellant he immediately obtained the copy of the appellate order on 26.05.2015 as asserted in para-8 of the appeal and filed this service appeal within time as under Section-4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 service appeal be preferred within 30 days of the communication of the order passed by the departmental authority and prayed for acceptance of appeal.

EXAMINED
Khyber Pakhtunkhwa
Service Tribunal
Peshawar

5. On the other hand, learned Assistant Advocate General Mr. Kabirullah Khattak for the respondents opposed the contention of learned counsel for the appellant and contended that the appellant was willfully absent from duty and after conducting proper inquiry show-cause notice was issued to him and the appellant failed to justify his absence therefore, he was rightly dismissed from service. It was further contended that the appeal is also time barred and prayed for dismissal of appeal.

6. We have heard the arguments on both side and gone through the record available on file.

7. Perusal of the record reveals that the appellant was serving in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Frontier Reserve Police as Constable. The record further reveals that vide Naqal Mad No. 29 dated 09.10.2014 the appellant was found absent and in this respect his absence report was entered in Naqal Mad and thereafter the departmental proceedings was initiated against the appellant on the basis of said Naqal Mad report. No doubt the appellant was absent from 09.10.2014 but the claim of the appellant regarding his absence was that on 09.10.2014 he met accident and was under treatment and the medical officer also advised him for bed rest. The record further reveals that the copy of the medical prescriptions containing advice of the doctor for bed rest is also available on record which support the stance of the appellant that he was ill and was unable to attend the duty. As such the absence of the appellant was not willful but due to his illness. In such circumstances the penalty of dismissal of the appellant appear to be harsh as such we partially accept the appeal and convert the penalty of dismissal from service into stoppage of five increments for three years. The absence period as well as intervening period will be treated as leave of the kind due. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.
