Neither petitioner nor her counsel present. Mr. Amjad Ali, Assistant and Mr. Jafar Ali, Senior Clerk alongwith Mr. Usman Ghani, District Attorney for respondents present.

On one hand from the conduct of the petitioner, it appears that after filing the present petition on 05.09.2016 except on one date i.e 13.07.2017, she never attended this Tribunal. So much so, on 16.09.2016, 04.11.2016, 18.08.2017, 10.11.2017, 19.12.2017, 31.01.2018 and 06.06.2018 neither the petitioner nor her counsel were present. This conduct of the petitioner manifests that she is not interested to pursue her case. On the other hand, the above named representative produced an order passed on 13.11.2017 by the D.H.O Peshawar which shows that she resumed the charge of her new posting on 23.10.2017. Most probably the non-attendance and non-seriousness on the part of the petitioner is due to the reason mentioned above.

With the above observations, the execution petition stands disposed off being implemented. No order as to costs. File be consigned to the record room.

Counsel for the petitioner and Addl: AG present. None present on behalf of respondents no. 1,2,3 and 4. Despite assurance given by the respondents that case was under process, implementation report was not submitted. It shows audacity, defiance and disrespect of the respondents in implementing the judgment of this Tribunal. Almost an year has elapsed but we are still waiting for implementation of the judgment dated 14.03.2016. In view of the non-serious, casual, callous, indifferent and irresponsible attitude of respondents this Tribunal is left with no other option but to attach the salary of respondents no. 1,2 and 3 so as to compel them to produce implementation report. In case implementation report is not submitted on or before next date of hearing further coercive measures in the shape of civil imprisonment would be taken against the respondents. To come up for implementation report on 18.08.2017 before S.B.

3. Brief facts giving rise to the instant appeal are that the appellant was appointed as Charge Nurse (BPS-16) on regular basis and was posted at Khalifa Gul Nawaz Teaching Hospital, Bannu where she assumed the charge of her post on 15.04.2011. That thereafter vide notification dated 21.05.2011 the appellant was transferred from Khalifa Gul Nawaz Teaching Hospital, Bannu to Govt: Lady Reading Hospital, Peshawar against a vacant post in the interest of public service and the appellant submitted her arrival report for duty at Govt: Lady Reading Hospital, Peshawar, which was accepted by respondent No.3 on 18.07.2011. That while posted in the Leady Reading Hospital, Peshawar she was proceeded against on the basis of complaints of ill-discipline and non-observing of hostel rules and regulations. That thereafter respondent No.2 without any valid orders of the authority and without observing the necessary codal formalities, the appellant was relieved from Lady Reading Hospital, Peshawar vide order dated 05.05.2012. That on coming to know of this irregularity and illegality committed by respondent No.2 by relieving the appellant without approval of respondents No.1 and thereafter respondent No.1 taking serious exception of this illegal act of respondent No.2 he straight-away directed that the order of relieving of the appellant reversed and the appellant be retained to work at LRH, Peshawar till further orders. That on 11.06.2012, respondent No.1 served a show cause notice upon the appellant proposing tentatively a minor penalty of warning to be imposed on her and in response to this show cause notice the appellant properly replied and appellant also appeared before respondent No.1 for personal hearing and she explained the factual position of the case.

ATTESTED

EXAMINED
Khyber Pakhtunkhwa
Service Tribunal,
Peshawar

That vide impugned order dated 25.09.2012 appellant was transferred from LRH, Peshawar to DHQ Hospital, Karak and in compliance of this order respondent No.2 relieved the appellant from LRH vide order dated 02.10.2012. That the appellant preferred departmental appeal which was rejected, hence the present service appeal.

4. The learned counsel for the appellant argued that impugned orders were tainted with malafide intention, hence not sustainable in the eyes of law and were liable to be struck down. He further argued that the appellant had not yet completed her tenure and the transfer order was in violation of transfer and posting policy of the Government and the judgment of the august Supreme Court of Pakistan in PLD 1995 SC 30. He further argued that there existed no exigencies of service nor was the order made in the public interest rather it was passed on the recommendation of the enquiry officer under malafide intention, hence was not tenable in the eyes of law. He further argued that the authority did not exercise his power under the law nor did he apply independent judicious mind while passing the impugned order, hence it was a pre-mature, illegal and invalid order and was liable to be set aside. He prayed that on acceptance of this appeal the impugned order dated 25.09.2012 and order dated 2.10.2012 of respondents No.1 and 2 may set aside and the appellant may be allowed to continue her duties at Leady Reading Teaching Hospital, Peshawar in the interest of justice and public interest as well.

5. The learned Government Pleader resisted the appeal and argued that order of transfer was made by the competent authority after thorough investigation of the complaints against the appellant and the same was based on material information collected by the competent authority. He further argued that under the law the appellant was required to serve any where against any post and the appellant could not ask for choice posting. He prayed that the appeal being devoid of any merits and also not maintainable may be dismissed.

6. Arguments of learned counsels for the parties heard and record perused with their assistance.

7. From perusal of the record, it transpired that the appellant who belong to District Karak was transferred from Khalifa Gul Nawaz Teaching Hospital, Bannu and posted at Govt: Leady Reading Hospital, Peshawar against the vacant post of charge Nurse in the interest of Public service on 21.05.2011. While posted in the Leady Reading Hospital, Peshawar she was proceeded against on the basis of complaints of ill discipline and non-observing of hostel rules and regulations. A proper fact finding enquiry was conducted and findings were submitted to the competent authority where-after the competent authority passed orders of her transfer to DHQ Hospital Karak against the vacant post in the interest of public service vide order dated 25.09.2012. The appellant was formally relieved of her duties by the Administration of Leady Reading Hospital on 12.10.2012 and she took charge of the post in the DHQ Hospital Karak accordingly. From perusal of the record, it transpired that departmental appeal of the appellant was rejected by the appellate authority but developments subsequent to transfer of the appellant from Leady Reading Hospital Peshawar to DHQ Hospital Karak such as relieving of the appellant for training course at Peshawar and her subsequent placement in DHQ Hospital Nowshera vide order dated 25.02.2014 warrant revisiting the case at the level of the appellate authority. In view of the fore-going, the Tribunal deems it appropriate to remand the case to the appellate authority with direction to revisit the case strictly on merits in accordance with law and rules and decide the same within a period of sixty days after receipt of this judgment. The appeal is disposed of accordingly. Parties are left to bear their own cost. File be consigned to the record room.
