Perusal of record reveals that although notices to all the respondents were issued. Respondents No. 1 to 4 submitted their joint written reply/comments but the order sheets are silent about the attendance of respondent No. 5. Therefore, it will be in the interest of justice that notice be issued to respondent No. 5 through the TCS with direction to submit reply/comments within a fortnight. The TCS expenses shall be deposited by the appellant within 03 days. Respondent No. 4 is also directed to produce the entire record of appointment process of the appellant.
