

08.04.2024 1. Case file was requisitioned upon early hearing application and for release of salaries attached vide order dated 17.01.2024 as well as to place on file additional documents. It is contended by the applicants that inquiry record was already submitted on 17.01.2024 but at the time of call of the case by the Tribunal, representative was busy in submitting inquiry record in the office of this Tribunal due to which he could not attend the court well in time and salaries of the respondents were attached. Perusal of record reveals that respondents had already submitted inquiry record vide diary No. 10614 dated 17.01.2024, which gives support to the contention of applicants. Moreover, today they submitted an application to place on file additional documents i.e the inquiries old and fresh which was conducted against the appellant which are placed on file. In the circumstance, direction given by the Tribunal complied with, therefore, the salaries of respondents attached vide order dated 17.01.2024 be released. However, respondents are directed to remain careful and vigilant in future.
