

S.A #.4990/2021

24th Apr. 2024 1. Learned counsel for the appellant and Mr. Asif Masood Ali Shah, Deputy District Attorney alongwith Mr. Naseer Ahmad, Deputy District Education Officer for the respondents present.

2. Claim of the appellant is that his name was included in the working paper prepared for promotion in the year 2017, to which, the respondents contend that at the relevant point of time, though, the name of the appellant was included in the working paper but the authority had dropped his name due to non-falling on criteria prescribed for promotion as SST (G) observing all quota and codal formalities. It was further stated in the reply that aggrieved from the promotion in the year 2017, the appellant filed departmental appeal, which was allowed by the authority concerned and ultimately promotion order of 2019 was issued. The minutes of the meetings of Departmental Promotion Committees held in 2017, and 2020, nor is the appellate order, according to which, the respondents alleged that the appeal was allowed and appellant was promoted, are not before the Tribunal, therefore, we direct that the minutes of the DPC 2017 and 2020 alongwith order of the appellate authority be produced within a week. Since we heard the arguments, it is adjourned to 14.05.2024 before the D.B, for conclusion and arguments, at the Principal Seat, Peshawar. P.P given to the parties.
