21.03.2018

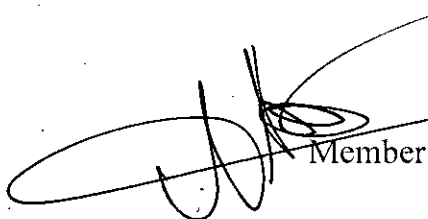

Appellant alongwith counsel and Mr. Usman Ghani, District Attorney alongwith Saquib Shahzad, Assistant and Malak Muhammad Haroon, AAO for the respondents present.

The learned counsel for the appellant submitted an application for withdrawal of the present service appeal with permission to submit fresh implementation petition for implementation of the judgment dated 12.05.2009 passed by this Tribunal.

The learned District Attorney objected to that part of this application in which the appellants seeks permission for implementation of the judgment of this Tribunal, inter-alia, on the grounds of limitation and resjudicata. In this appeal, the appellant has challenged the vires of Act No. IX of 2012 and that vires to the extent of retrospectivity has been decided by the Worthy Peshawar High Court in Writ Petition No. 913-P/2014, decided on 08.6.2017. According to the appellant after that judgment his grievance has been redressed and he can file a fresh application for the execution of the judgment of 2009 which was not executed due to that Act.

Since a question of law is involved which can be determined by the executing court only. However, this Bench has no objection on filing of execution petition subject to all legal and factual exceptions.

Consequently, the present appeal is dismissed as withdrawn. The appellant can seek all his legal rights available to him under the law. File be consigned to the record room.

REGISTRAR
SERVICE TRIBUNAL
KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA
PESHAWAR.

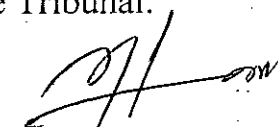

Mr. Muhammad Haroon SDM GHS Jhangi
Abbottabad.

Resubmitted with the remarks/request that impugned Act (KPK ACT NO IX OF 2012 dated 15/05/2012) was promulgated.

Initially the impugned Act (KPK ACT NO IX OF 2012 dated 15/05/2012) was challenged in Constitutional Petition (Writ Petition) before High Court and on 25/03/2014, the Honourable High Court decided the law point in this respect at Para 04 of the its judgment that Service Tribunal has its own jurisdiction to decide the matter involved in said Act. Thus instant Service appeal is filed under the High Court Order.

Moreover the requirement of departmental appeal u/s 4 of the KPK Service Tribunal Act is not possible as final authority for promulgation of Act is Governor KPK and there is no appellate authority available in the department who entertained such departmental appeal, and the said issue is resolved by High Court in judgment dated 25/03/2014 which is already annexed with appeal.

Under the above circumstances it is requested that instant service appeal may please be fixed for further legal process before Honourable Tribunal.

JUSTICE AND INEFFECTIVE UPON THE APPELLANT'S RIGHTS OF 04 ADVANCE INCREMENTS, GRANTED IN SERVICE APPEAL NO 1051 OF 2008 ACCEPTED BY KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA SERVICE TRIBUNAL PASSED ON 12/05/2009 ALONG WITH ALL BACK BENEFITS WITH EFFECT FROM HIS RELEVANT DATE OF CLAIM.

PRAYER:-

ON ACCEPTANCE OF THE INSTANT SERVICE APPEAL, DECLARED THE SAID ACT (KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA ACT NO.IX of 2012) AS ILLEGAL UNCONSTITUTIONAL INEFFECTIVE UPON THE APPELLANT'S RIGHTS OF 04 ADVANCE INCREMENTS AND RESPONDENTS BE GRACIOUSLY DIRECTED TO GRANT RELEVANT 04 ADVANCE INCREMENTS (ALREADY DECIDED ON 12/05/2009) TO THE APPELLANT WITH EFFECT FROM HIS RELEVANT DATES OF CLAIMS WITH ALL BACK BENEFITS.

Respectfully Sheweth,

FACTS

- 1) That appellant being school teacher was granted 04 advance Increments on his higher qualification of MA/MSc on the basis of acceptance of his individual Service Appeal by this Honourable Service Tribunal and passed a consolidated judgment on 12/05/2009 at Camp Court Abbottabad. Copy of service appeal and relevant pages of Judgment is annexed as "Annexure "A" & "B"".
- 2) That when respondents' after passing long time' did not implement the existing judgment of Service Tribunal, appellant filed execution petition before this Tribunal, but an Act "Khyber Pakhtunkhwa cessation of payment of arrears on advance increments on higher education qualification Act" (KPK ACT NO IX OF 2012 dated 15/05/2012) was promulgated/published by the respondents. Copy of Act no IX is annexed as "Annexure "C"".

- 3) That on the basis of said Act, all the cases (relating to Advance Increments) of execution/implementation of judgment of Service Tribunal in respect of appellant and others too was abated/filed by the Service Tribunal, and appellant has come to know on 10/06/2014 that the vires of said impugned Act was also challenged through Constitution Petition (Writ Petition) before Peshawar High Court and where it was decided on 25/03/2014 and High Court held that remedy by way of service appeal before the Service Tribunal is available to the aggrieved person (appellant) against the impugned Act. Copy of High Court Order is annexed as Annexure "D".
- 4) That in pursuance of law as decided by High Court in Writ Petition, the instant service appeal is being filed with out departmental appeal, as under the law, it is not possible because there is no appellate departmental authority available, above the Governor KPK who is the promulgating/issuing final authority of impugned Act, However High Court has already decided the matters in Para 06 of the judgment Hence this Service appeal inter alia on the following Grounds.

Grounds

- a) That it is undoubted fact that respondents illegally snatched the legal rights of the appellant in an uncivilized way in a very haste manner, which is against the equity and there is no single example is available in the civilized society.
- b) That it is admittedly proved that Service Tribunal passed its judgment on 12/05/2009 and respondents did not implement it after passing long period of 04 years, moreover Service Tribunal accepted the 267 service appeals through said single judgment dated 12/05/2009, while 90 % of cases has already been implemented, thus gross discriminatory treatment is involved in the case of appellant and the said Act is against Article 25 of the Constitution.

- c) That the action of respondents is admittedly arbitrary capricious unjust and against all norms of justice and against Tribunal Judgment and order as well as constitution of Pakistan.
- d) That impugned Act (Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No IX) is admittedly against the Article 25 of the Constitution as well as Constitution it self, according to said Act advance increments taken before issuance of Act (15/05/2012) would be legal, correct and valid but the same rights of advance increments (execution Petitions) would stand abated as per impugned Act, Such kind of target date of any Act/Notification /Memorandum/letter is not only illegal, against law but also against the Constitutional rights of the petitioners and in this respect the Learned larger bench of Supreme Court decided the same matters in (1991 SCMR 1041) (relevant at para 33 page 1092) thus liable to be declared illegal.
- e) That under the law provincial assembly has no power to neither change the nature of constitutional rights/Article nor pass any Act which is against to any Article of Constitution and the impugned Act cannot be passed in the presence of Article 25 of the Constitution.
- f) That Constitution cannot allow pick and choose types of colourful activities between the citizens thus impugned Act is unconstitutional.
- g) That it is an admitted fact that under question Act is the matter of great public importance.
- h) That appellant, who is once again dragged into litigation, that his grievances have been solved completely by this Honourable Tribunal by accepting his service appeal on 12/05/2009, but respondents published an illegal impugned Act, thus the conduct of the respondents is uncivilized in the civilized society and as such requires indulgence of this Honourable Tribunal by awarding appropriate punishment to the respondents

It is, therefore, respectfully prayed that on acceptance of the instant Service appeal, this Honourable Tribunal may please be declared the said Act (Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No. IX of 2012) as illegal unconstitutional and respondents be graciously directed to grant 04 advance increments of M.A/M.Sc to the appellant with effect from his relevant dates of claims, decided in service appeal no 1051 of 2008, with all back benefits in the interest of natural justice.

Any other relief for which the appellant is entitled, and the same is not asked/prayed specifically, may very kindly be granted in favour of the appellant.

2. The appellant of Service Appeal No. 1276 of 2007, contended that he was appointed as untrained P.E.T. Teacher in Education Department on 27.6.1990. The appellant being C.T trained, was adjusted against the C.T post on 06.05.1996 on regular basis. He acquired higher qualification of M.A on 25.08.1999. The appellant was entitled to advance increments in the light of the Finance Department notification dated 11.8.1991. The same was not given to him. Some of the teachers came to this Tribunal whose Service Appeals were dismissed in Service Appeal No. 498 of 2006 decided on 24.4.2007. The August Supreme Court of Pakistan, while deciding C.P.L.A No. 525 of 2007 and CPLA No. 526 of 2007 decided that all the teachers were entitled to the advance increments like all other civil servants. On the request of the appellant, the same benefit was not given to him. Hence, he filed the present Service Appeal. As already mentioned, the broad facts and the legal issues in all other appeals are almost on the same lines.

3. The respondents contested the appeal and contended that either the appellants had not submitted applications or their applications were time-barred. And there was no judgment in favour of the appellants.

We heard the arguments and perused the record.

The judgment in CPLA Nos. 525 of 2007 and 526 of 2007 is as under:-

"3. Learned Additional Advocate General attempted to argue that in view of the higher scale granted to Elementary School Teachers in pursuance of the circular letter dated 07.8.1991, which was personal to them, the petitioners would not be entitled to the incentive of advance increments contemplated by circular letter dated 11.8.1991 but he is unable to cite any principle of law or authority for placing this interpretation. We find that, while circular letter dated 7.8.1991 exclusively deals with the scales of pay of school teachers in different categories, circular letter dated 11.8.1991, provides for the revision of basic pay scales and grant of annual increments and advance increments for all Provincial civil servants in NWFP without any exception. Since the teachers or the employees in Education Department have never been expressly or impliedly excluded from the operation of the circular letter, view taken by the Tribunal being erroneous cannot be sustained at law. In fact, it suffers from clear misconception of law and misconstruction of the circular letter (supra)."

While disposing of the C.R.P No. 216 and 217 of 2007 in C.P Nos. 525 and 526 of 2007, the August Supreme Court of Pakistan held:-

"The learned Addl. Advocate General has contended that this Court while interpreting the circulars in question has taken a view contrary to the correct legal position, according to which private respondents were not entitled to the benefit of advance increments. We are afraid, the learned Addl. A.G instead of pointing out any mistake of law and fact in the judgment made an attempt to re-open the case on merits. The scale of review is very limited and the points already considered in the judgment under review cannot be allowed to be re-agitated in review jurisdiction. These review petitions being without any substance are accordingly dismissed."

While disposing of Crl. O.P. No. 66 & 67 of 2007, it was held by the August Supreme Court of Pakistan:-

"The learned Addl. A.G. has given an undertaking for implementation of the judgment of this Court within a period of two weeks and in view thereof, this criminal original is disposed of with the direction that the judgment should be implemented in letter and spirit within two weeks under intimation to the Registrar of this Court."

6. In the above circumstances, and in view of the judgment in rhyme by the August Supreme Court of Pakistan, and keeping in view the provisions of Article 189 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, we have no other alternative but to declare that all the appellants, after ascertainment that they are the persons similarly placed with the appellants who had previously litigated and in whose favour the judgment mentioned above was given by the August Supreme Court of Pakistan, are entitled to the same benefits as have been given to the appellants of the judgments quoted above. The appeals of such similarly placed persons, after such ascertainment, stands accepted without costs. Each party will bear the cost of the litigation.

7. The official respondents in the above mentioned appeals as well as the other concerned officers/officials in the province are directed to follow the above quoted judgments in their true letter and spirit and without compelling the respective right holders to enter into litigation with the respective official respondents, otherwise the costs of their litigation shall be recovered from the pay and pension as well as person and property of the defaulting concerned officer, though after fixation of responsibility on them as a result of proper enquiry.

8. The remaining similarly placed persons may submit applications/representations to their concerned authorities directly, who shall have to decide their cases as above within a reasonable time.

The respondents did not file appeal against the said decisions of the Tribunal. However, when the said judgments of the KPK Tribunal could not be implemented, the petitioners filed petitions for implementation of the said decisions before the Tribunal and in the meanwhile, the respondents promulgated 'Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Cessation of Payment of Arrears on Advance Increments on

"A bare reading of the above sections from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No.IX of 2012 makes it crystal clear that whatever benefit the petitioner was claiming through the judgment dated 12.5.2009, has been nullified by the legislature through clear intendment in unequivocal terms, while vires of the said Act have not been challenged before any forum."

3. The submissions made by petitioner No.1 in person and on behalf of other petitioners have been considered and the available record thoroughly perused.

4. The main grievance of the petitioners is that they have discriminately treated by the respondents in awarding advance increments on acquiring higher qualifications and have not been considered at par with those, who have been granted such relief and they were prevented on the basis of the Act (ibid), which was against the spirit of constitution and violation of the Fundamental Rights of the petitioners guaranteed in Article 25 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973. This Court, in view of the clear enunciation of the Honourable Supreme Court of Pakistan in I.A. Sharwani v. Government of Pakistan (1991 SCMR 1041), and the bar contained in Article 212 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 would not dilate upon the merits of the case that may prejudice the case of petitioners before the Service Tribunal, who is competent legal forum to decide the grievance of the petitioners. In the aforementioned case, the apex Court has observed that:

"From the above-cited cases, it is evident that it has been consistently held inter alia by this Court that a civil servant if is aggrieved by a final order, whether original or appellate, passed by a departmental authority in respect of his terms and conditions, his remedy, if any, is by way of an appeal before the Service Tribunal even where the case involves vires of a particular Service Rule or a notification or the question, whether an accused civil servant can claim the right to be represented by a counsel before the Enquiry Officer. We are inclined to hold that if a statutory rule or a notification adversely affects the terms and conditions of a civil servant, the same can be treated as an order in terms of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Act in order to file an appeal before the Service Tribunal. However, in the present case, the petitioner's case is founded solely on the ground of discriminatory treatment in violation of Article 25 of the Constitution and not because of any breach of any provision of the Civil Servants Act or any service rule. Furthermore, the question involved is of public importance as it affects all the present and future pensioners and, therefore, falls within the compass of clause (3) of Article 184 of the Constitution. However, we may clarify that a civil servant cannot by-pass the jurisdiction of the Service Tribunal by adding a ground of violation of the Fundamental rights. The Service Tribunal will have jurisdiction in case which is founded on the terms and conditions of the service even if it involves the question of violation of the Fundamental Rights."

In view of the aforementioned principle laid down by the apex Court, the petitioners may approach to the Service Tribunal, if so advised. This Court in Constitutional Jurisdiction under Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 and the bar contained in Article 212 of the Constitution of, 1973, as the matter relates to 'terms and conditions' of the service of the petitioners is not competent to assume jurisdiction, when Civil Petition No.360 of 2013.

(on appeal from judgment of KPK Service Tribunal, Peshawar dated 30.1.2013, passed in Implementation Petition No.49/2012)

Muhammad Haroon ...Petitioner

Versus

Executive District Officer, Elementary & Secondary Education Dept. Haripur, etc
... Respondents

Petitioner: In person.

For official respondents: Mr. Naveed Akhtar Khan, Addl.A.G. KPK.
Mr. Saeed-ur-Rehman, ADO (Edu.), Haripur.

Date of hearing: 29.8.2013

JUDGMENT

Anwar Zaheer Jamali, J.- By this petition under Article 212(3) of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, leave to appeal is sought by petitioner Muhammad Haroon against the order dated 30.1.2013, passed by the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal, Peshawar (in short "the Tribunal"), whereby his implementation application No.49/2012, in service Appeal No.506/2009, was dismissed in view of sections-1 & 2 of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Cessation of Payment of Arrears on Advance Increments on Higher Educational Qualification Act, 2012 (Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No.IX of 2012).

2. We have heard the arguments of petitioner. He has placed reliance on the earlier judgment of the Tribunal dated 12.5.2009, whereby he was held entitled for the benefit of advance increments on the basis of higher qualification. For this purpose, he has also placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court, reported as PIA Corporation v. Aziz-ur-Rehman Chaudhry (2011 SCMR 219).

3. As against it, learned Additional Advocate General KPK, Mr. Naveed Akhtar Khan, strongly contends that benefit of earlier judgment dated 12.5.2009, through implementation application No.49/2012 filed before the Tribunal, cannot be allowed to the petitioner in view of the clear language of section-1 of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No.IX of 2012, which has made its section-2 applicable with retrospective effect from 01.12.2001 and, thus, made the said judgment unimplementable.

4. We have considered the above noted submissions made before us by the petitioner and the learned Addl. A.G KPK and seen that indeed as per judgment of the Tribunal dated 12.5.2009, the petitioner was held entitled for the benefit of advance increments on the basis of his higher qualification, but such judgment has lost its efficacy for the purpose of implementation by clear intendment through sections 1 and 2 of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No.IX of 2012, which read as under:-

"1. Short title, application and commencement. - (1) This Act may be called the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Cessation of Payment of Arrears on Advance Increments on Higher Educational Qualification Act, 2012.

(2) It shall apply to all the employees of the Provincial Government, who were entitled to received advance increments on higher educational qualification.

(3) It shall come into force at once and shall be deemed to have taken effect on and from 1st day of December, 2001.

2. Cessation of payment of arrears on advance increments on higher educational qualification.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any decision, judgment and order of any Tribunal or Court including High Court or Supreme Court of Pakistan, for the purpose of any claim for payment of arrears on account of advance increments on higher educational qualification sanctioned in pursuance of any order, letter, office memoranda, notification, instructions and other instruments issued before 1.12.2001, such orders, letters, office memoranda, notifications, instructions and other instruments shall be deemed to be non-existent, ceased or revoked and no further claim whatsoever on the basis of these instruments shall be entertained and all cases in respect of such claims pending in any Court or Tribunal including High Court and Supreme Court of Pakistan shall stand abated.

(2) Any order made, instruction issued, decision, judgment or order of any Court or Tribunal including a High Court or the Supreme Court, implemented immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been validly made, issued and implemented by the date of commencement of this Act, and any amount already paid there-under on account of advance increments or arrears thereof shall be deemed to have been validly paid and shall not be recoverable from the recipient Government employees."

5. A bare reading of the above sections from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No.IX of 2012 makes it crystal clear that whatever benefit the petitioner was claiming through the judgment dated 12.5.2009, has been nullified by the legislature through clear intendment in unequivocal terms, while vires of the said Act have not been challenged before any forum.

6. This being the position, leave to appeal is refused and this petition is

Respondents

REJOINDER (REPLICATION) ON THE COMMENTS (REPLY) OF THE RESPONDENTS NO 1 TO 4.

Respectfully Sheweth,

Appellant submits the following rejoinder.

ON PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS

- 1-3) That appellant has good cause of action to file instant appeal before this Honourable Court, it is not time bared but filed well in time, there is no limitation against Pay matters, and cause of action arises every month when the appellant receives his pay slip, it is legally and factually maintainable, and according to law, the impugned Act would itself treated as final order, Moreover the instant service appeal is filed, in pursuance of the Judgment dated 25/03/2014 (Annexure D) passed by Peshawar High Court, which is now final, as respondents has not filed any review petition before High Court, nor filed any Petition/appeal before Supreme Court of Pakistan.
- 4-6) That appellant filed his appeal according to law, for his valuable rights, which was snatched illegally by the respondents and it is fundamental & constitutional right of appellant to file instant appeal, thus plea of pressurizing, is incorrect and denied, appellant did not conceal any fact from this Honourable Tribunal and came to this Honourable Tribunal with clean hands and appellant has got good locus standi to challenge the impugned Act, and there is no estoppel in this regard.

7-8) That there is no question of misjoinder and nonjoinder of necessary parties, all the necessary parties are already included in the panel of respondents and no one is left, respondents in para-8 themselves admitted that, this Honourable Tribunal is not a Constitutional Court, Government of KPK through Secretaries (Departments) have already been arrayed as party, the jurisdictional point is decided and well settled by Supreme Court and specifically by High Court on 25/03/2014 which is worth perusal, In this Tribunal, the vires of impugned Act is challenged through instant appeal, which is filed on the basis of law, decided by Peshawar High Court in Writ Petition on 25/03/2014, which attained its finality, and binding upon respondents.

9-11) That the right of advance increments was given/decided by this Honourable Tribunal vide its judgment dated 12/05/2009 and respondents were arrayed as party and they appeared, filed comments, and fully contested the same, and legally no law (Act) was promulgated against the fundamental and constitutional rights of the appellant, no one has any such power to make such law which is against the spirit & Articles of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan.

ON FACTUAL OBJECTIONS

1) That respondents in reply of Para no 1 of the service appeal,

“the judgment of Honourable Tribunal -----
----- Act No IX of 2012”

have reproduced the para No 04 of the Judgment dated 29/08/2013 passed by Supreme Court of Pakistan in CP No 360

of 2013, but deliberately concealed the real factual position of the case, as a matter of facts, under the next Para no 05 of the same judgment of Supreme Court of Pakistan, in pursuance of observation/guidance of Apex court, the Writ Petition was decided by High Court on 25/03/2014 and instant service appeal is filed under the same law.

- 2) That under the law provincial assembly has no power to change the nature of constitutional rights/Article nor pass any Act which is against to any Article of Constitution and the impugned Act cannot be passed in the presence of Article 25 of the Constitution, and such law/matters was decided by the Learned larger bench of Supreme Court in (1991 SCMR 1041) (relevant at para 33 page 1092), Further more all necessary parties are arrayed in service appeal and same appeal is directly filed under the specific law as decided by High Court in Writ Petition on 25/03/2014, which is binding upon respondents and attained its finality and never challenged by respondents before proper forum on the question/point of necessary party.
- 3) That respondents stated the factual position of the case before the Judgment dated 25/03/2014 passed by Peshawar High Court, but they did not point out any law, or gave any thing that how appellant can be restricted from his legal right on the subject ? , while it was decided on 25/03/2014 and High Court held that remedy by way of service appeal before the Service Tribunal is available to the aggrieved person (appellant) against the impugned Act, respondents side tracked the real issue, because they have no defense in the presence of law, settled by Supreme Court and High Court.
- 4) That respondents did not submit their reply to the point and tried to hush up the matter, factually case of appellant is quite clear and filed according to law decided by Supreme Court of Pakistan and the Peshawar High Court Abbottabad Bench, and the Jurisdiction point of law on the subject subjudice before this Honourable Tribunal, is finally settled by larger Bench of Supreme Court of Pakistan, in her reported Judgment (1991 SCMR 1041) (relevant at para 33 page 1092), after the relevant law, respondent have no way to deny the rights of the appellant in any way.

- 5) That Appellant seeks the leave of this Honourable Tribunal to request additional grounds according to situation at the time of arguments.

ON GROUNDS

- a-c) That the reply of the respondents are totally incorrect and ambiguous, also not relevant to the points raised in the appeal, appellant reiterated the position taken in Para a-c of his appeal.
- d-h) That the case of appellant is very much clear and it is directly based on Supreme Court Judgment and comments of the respondents are totally incorrect, also not relevant to the points raised in appeal, and it is admitted facts that reply of respondents is totally incorrect and claim of appellant cannot be denied by the respondents in the presence of Supreme Court Judgment as referred above, thus the position taken in Para (d-h) in appeal by appellant is reiterated.
