IN THE COURT OF HUSSAIN ALI,
ADDITIONAL DISTRICT JUDGE-II, BAJAUR

CIVIL APPEAL # 04/XIII OF 2023

Date of Original Institution: 07.01.2023
Date of receipt of this court: 07.01.2023
Date of Decision: 22.09.2023

JUDGMENT
22.09.2023

1. This appeal has been preferred against the judgment dated 07.12.2022, of the learned Civil Judge-I Bajaur, whereby suit of the appellant was returned due to lack of jurisdiction.

2. Briefly, stated facts are that, the plaintiff/appellant filed civil suit No 93/1 of 2020 for correction of his name and date of birth. The suit was contested by the defendants. Initially the suit was decreed but this court set aside the decree with direction to the trial court to record evidence in respect of the claim of defendant No.03.

3. The learned trial court then fixed the case for arguments on the point of jurisdiction.

4. After hearing arguments of learned counsel for the parties, returned the suit vide his judgment dated 07.12.2022.

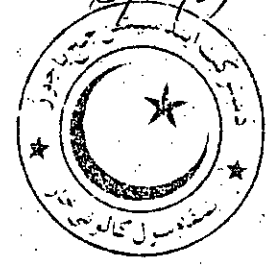

5. Feeling aggrieved from the order of the learned Civil Judge-I, Bajaur the appellant has preferred the instant appeal on the ground that the learned trial court has passed the impugned order without considering the available record and without understanding the provision of law and rules.

6. Mr. Haya Khan Advocate the learned counsel for appellant argued that the learned trial court while passing the impugned judgment has not applied the law properly. He argued that the correction in the name and date of birth is the jurisdiction of civil court and service tribunal has no powers to correct the same. He further submitted that the appellant has received the pension since 1997 but no objection was raised by the defendant No.03. He further submitted that the appellant is a retired employee and he cannot approach service tribunal. He therefore, requested that on acceptance of this appeal the order of the learned trial court dated. 07.12.2022 be set aside.

District attorney for the respondent argued that the respondent has concealed the material facts from the court and he want to replace Bakht Munir, who was their retired employee. He argued that the appellant want correction in CNIC in the garb of which he want to replace another retired employee. He further submitted that the matter is falling in terms and condition of the service and as such civil court has no jurisdiction to entertain the suit. He therefore, requested that the appeal be dismissed.

Arguments heard and file perused.

8. From the arguments of the learned counsel of the parties and perusal of record it transpires that the plaintiff has prayed for correction of his name and date of birth in the service record i.e. pension book, wherein according to him his name and date of birth has been mentioned wrongly. Prima facie the case of the plaintiff/ appellant is pertaining to the terms and conditions of service because he seeks correction of name and date of birth in the service record i.e. pension book. The appellant alleges that he is retired employee and as such he was required to have corrected his name and date of birth within a reasonable time after his appointment if he was not able to correct the same within two years from his appointment.
