Qamar Zaman Khattak Adv.
Supreme Court at Peshawar.

Respected Sir,

office objection
No-I being removed & corrected

1- Respondents may not be deleted or they may not be considered unnecessary/improper parties. due to the following justifications:
- Respondent No-I for justification I need to go to the ground A of my appeal, that I need to require some legal action against the other respondents which are subordinate to the respondents.
- Respondent No. 02 is necessary party because of a final executive authority for the redressal of the grievances of the appellant.
- Respondent No. 5 is not a necessary party, therefore removed. inspite of these justifications if office may not agree then may fix this appeal with office objection no-I before this honorable Tribunal please. That the Respondent No. 5 was unnecessary party therefore removed then the no of respondents being reduced to number 5 instead of number 6, so they are being corrected. P.T.O

2. office objection no. 2 being removed.

3. office objection No. 3 being removed.

4. office objection No. 4 being removed & corrected.

5. office objection No. 5 being removed & corrected

which is shown from Annexure B please.

6. office objection No. 6 being removed, that these all documents is unnecessary, therefore being removed and re-paged the rests as well as index.

7. office objection no. 7 being removed, did provide copies for each respondents.

Therefore it is requested to be fixed before this Honble Tribunal for further

SERVICE APPEAL UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA SERVICES TRIBUNAL ACT 1973, AGAINST THE ILLEGAL UNLAWFUL ACT OF THE RESPONDENT PARENT DEPARTMENT OF THE APPELLANT, ACCORDING TO WHICH THE REQUEST OF THE GENUINE LAWFUL REQUEST OF THE APPELLANT WAS NOT ENTERTAIN, IN LIEU OF THE CONSIDERATION OF THE PAYMENT OF PENSIONARY ALLOWANCES INCLUDING GP FUNDS AND OTHER SERVICE EMOLUMENTS WHATEVER UNDER THE

LAW APPLIED INTO THE CASE OF THE APPELLANT AND REMAINED THE APPELLANT AS SUCH UNBAKED AND AIDLESS, DESPITE OF THE PROPER SUBMISSION OF THE DEPARTMENTAL LEVEL APPLICATION TO THE RESPONDENT BY THE APPELLANT, HENCE IN CONSEQUENTIAL THE APPELLANT DESERVED FOR ALL KINDS OF PENSIONARY ALLOWANCES GP FUNDS AND OTHER SERVICE EMOLUMENTS AND THE RESPONDENT IS REQUIRE TO CONSIDERED THE STATUS OF THE APPELLANT.

Prayer in Appeal:

on acceptance of this appeal, the respondents may very graciously please be directed to consider the status of the entitle of pensionary benefits/ allowances, GP Funds and other service emoluments of the appellant, in consideration of the services throughout provided from the initial era of appointment and there on recording and release the said payable payment to the appellant.

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH

Appellant humbly submits as under:

1. Precisely appellant initially appointed in the respondent department on 1st of Sept. 1970 on the post of SV (Senior Vernacular), in the respondent department and being teacher, indulge with one of phenomenal sacred profession of the universe of earth. (that the reflection of the service book itself disclosed about the earlier initial appointment of the appellant, (COPIES OF SERVICE BOOKS ARE ANNEXURE A).

2. That thereafter appellant remained excellent during the course of his services and performance his duty consistently till the 1978 but thereafter when appellant submitted an application to the concern the then superior authority of the respondent for leave for certain period, the said application of the appellant for leave is rejected. Consequently due to unavoidable circumstances at that time when appellant bent upon to proceed with the matter of his private and personal indulgences ; therefore the respondent department served Show Cause Notice and further departmental level proceedings against the appellant, which strongly defended by the appellant and lastly appellant acquitted from the charges of absence against the level against him and the services of the appellant directed to restore accordingly, which is reflected from my 1st service book being paged 21 as well as from my 2nd Service Book being paged 24. (COPIES OF SERVICE BOOK PAGED 21 - 24 ARE ANNEXURE "B").

AKS

3. It is notable to mention here for affectionate consideration and deeper perusal of this learned Tribunal being the extra ordinary case presented on the part of the appellant, that since due to the above absence of appellant, the services of the appellant, relinquished by the respondent department and thereafter fresh appointment with the nomenclature of

Re-Appointment is recommended by the respondent department however in this respect it is require to evaluate at this stage of drafting that the previous service era of the appellant need to realize from the initial appointment of the appellant from Sept. 1970 till 1988 (even without pay), is wrongly and illegally ignored and avoided, by continuing the further services of the appellant from the fresh rather Reappointment that of Reinstatement of the appellant.

4. It is further imperative being crux of the matter that appellant again started his services even by used to submitted and file consistent application to the then authorities for consideration of the above lacking of the era of earlier services of appellant but of no fruitful result however appellant became consistent with his freshly appointment job being CT and preformed the same till the 1996.

5. That according to the calculation of further service of the appellant, the specific era of more than 07 years also served by the appellant with zeal and zest, according to his immense ability and capabilities, but at that time to when the appellant further relaxed with the lawful absence by submitting an application, it is important to mention here that during such special era, it was informed to the appellant by the respondent department that his services has been ended up, due to the reason of completion of services of years, but in this respect nothing and black and white is issued to the appellant on the part of respondent department

6. Without agitating the true application of the ending era of services of the appellant, it was questioned on the part of the appellant to the respondent department about acknowledgement of the services after retire privileges and benefits but in this respect it is notable to mention here that appellant prayed that the earlier retain services era from the initial period of 1970 should also be included therein in the adjustment of the pensionary benefits/ allowances of the appellant.
7. It is very unfortunate to say, which reveals strange and surprises that neither the earlier retained services of era of the appellant recommended to include to the appellant nor the usual pensionary benefits and after retire services advantages recommended to issue or realize to the appellant, in recognition of the further era started form Reappointment of the appellant from 1988.
8. Gross illegality & unlawfulness is committed on the part of respondent department while treated to the appellant case, which is not only the gross violation of the rules, procedure laid down by the policy backer but also the illegality & unlawfulness of the respondent department means to violation of constitutional rights and the conduct of the respondent is nothing but abuse of process of law and misuse of the authority which is the criminal negligence for specifically under the criminal mode of treatment and proceedings.

ATS

9. That aside from the earlier consistently submitted uncounted applications of the appellant to the respondent department, when recently also appellant at this stage his life, obviously became aidless and unbaked, knocking of the door of this learned Tribunal within the meaning of section 4 of the subject law, by invoking perfect jurisdiction against the respondent BECAUSE recently also when the appended application was not entertain in any respect which reflect straight away denial then ultimately cognizance of this learned Tribunal, attracted to the appellant against the respondent hence this appeal inter alia on the following grounds amongst other. (COPY OF APPEAL AS ANNEXURE C).

GROUNDS

- A. That huge injustice has done to the appellant on the part of the respondent department that is why the head of whole administration of province that is office of Chief Secretary Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, is knowingly arrayed by the appellant in the panel of the respondent, with the intention to affix the legal liability upon the subordinate and questionable offices of another department, therefore through this special para appellant require to attract contention of the respondent No.1 to reply such injustice done to the appellant by the respondent department.

AS

B. It is well settled by the affix courts of Pakistan in its numerous decisions that the pensionary rights of every employee of government cannot be ignored specially when there is nothing black & white against him rather his services relinquished through any hard order rather announcement of any sentence rather dismissal from services or termination from the service. MOREOVER it has well settled by calculation of the even earlier of era service of appellant started from 1970 and thereafter obviously from the Reappointment of appellant from 1988, the services of the appellant has comprehensively being attain statutory period of well over and above Ten years and it is believe an appellant has almost served his parent department beyond the imagination of Ten years rather over and above 13 years, therefore it is legally believed that after retire privilege services privilege of the appellant has become irrevocable legal rights of the appellant.

Q.

C. That the treatment of the respondent department to the appellant is unconstitutional result of misuse of the power and exceeding from their mandate so on the humanitarian basis on also the cases may be looked into, under such circumstances

D. Any other which is not specifically agitated by the appellant in this particular portion of grounds, will also added at the time of presentation and argument but with the kind permission of this learned Tribunal.

It is therefore, most humbly prayed that on acceptance of this appeal, the respondents may very graciously please be directed to consider the status of the entitle of pensionary benefits/ allowances, GP Funds and other service emoluments of the appellant, in consideration of the services throughout provided from the initial era of appointment and there on recording and release the said payable payment to the appellant.
