Learned counsel for the appellant present. Preliminary arguments heard.

Learned counsel for the appellant argued that in the seniority list of the year 2017, the appellant was senior to private respondent No. 7 as appellant name was mentioned at serial No. 1086 while private respondent No. 7 name was mentioned at serial No. 1721 but in the final seniority list for the year 2023, appellant name was mentioned at serial No. 1006 and name of private respondent No. 7 was mentioned at serial No. 917 despite the fact that private respondent No. 7 was appointed later in time from the appellant. He further argued that the appellant is aggrieved from seniority position of private respondent No. 7 only and has no grievance from other officials falling in from serial No. 918 to 1005, therefore, no need to array them as parte.

Point raised needs consideration, therefore, the appeal in hand is admitted to regular hearing subject to all legal and valid objections. Appellant is directed to deposit security fee within 07 days. Notice be issued to the respondents through TCS, the expenses of which shall be deposited by the appellant within 07 days. File to come up for reply/comments on 02.07.2024 before the S.B. Parcha Peshi given to learned counsel for the appellant.
