JUDGMENT

RASHIDA BANO, MEMBER (J): The service appeal in hand has been instituted under Section-4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 with the following prayer:-

“On acceptance of this appeal both the impugned orders dated 08.05.2012 & 16.12.2013 may kindly be set aside and the appellant may kindly be reinstated in service alongwith all back benefits. Any other remedy which this august Tribunal deems fit that may also be onward Tribunal deems fit that may also be granted in favour appellant.

2. Precise facts as gleaned from the record are that the appellant was appointed as Constable in Police Department in the year 2003. Disciplinary proceedings were initiated against the appellant on the allegations that he remained absent from duty up to 26 days without any leave/permission, which culminated into his dismissal from service from the date of absence i.e 26.11.2011 vide impugned order dated 08.05.2012. The appellant filed departmental appeal on 21.03.2013, which was rejected vide impugned order dated 16.12.2013, the appellant has now approached this Tribunal through filing of instant service appeal on 11.02.2020 for redressal of his grievances.

3. Respondents were put on notice who submitted their reply on the appeal.

4. Learned counsel for the appellant has argued that the absence of the appellant was not intentional but was due to some domestic problems. He next argued that the appellant was awarded punishment of dismissal from service with retrospective effect, therefore, the impugned order dated 08.05.2012 being void ab-initio is liable to be set-aside and even no limitation run against the impugned order of dismissal of the appellant. In the last, he requested that the impugned orders may be set-aside and the appellant may be reinstated in service with all back benefits.

5. Conversely, learned Deputy District Attorney for the respondents has contended that the appellant was remained absent from duty without any leave or permission from the competent authority and he has got 16 bad entries in his service career. He next contended that all the legal and codal formalities were fulfilled before passing the impugned orders, therefore, the appellant was rightly awarded the major penalty of dismissal from service. He further contended that the appellant the departmental appeal and service appeal of the appellant are badly barred by time, therefore, the appeal in hand is liable to be dismissed on this score alone.

6. We heard the learned counsel for the appellant as well as learned Deputy District Attorney for the respondents and perused the case file with connected documents in detail.

7. We will have to decide first that whether impugned order passed by the competent authority vide which the appellant has been awarded punishment of dismissal with retrospective effect is void ab-initio and no limitation would run against the same. In our humble view this argument of the learned counsel for the appellant is misconceived. Though punishment could not be awarded with retrospective effect, however where a civil servant has been proceeded against departmentally on the ground of his absence from duty, then punishment could be awarded to him retrospectively from the date of his absence from duty and the same is an exception to the general rule that punishment could not be imposed with retrospective effect. Worthy, apex court in its judgment reported as 2022 P.L.C (C.S.) 1177 has observed as below:-

"8. We find that the impugned judgment has totally ignored the record and facts of this case. The department has also been totally negligent in pursuing this matter and has allowed the Respondent to remain absent from duty for so long. On the issue of retrospective effect, we find that admittedly, the respondent has been absent from duty w.e.f. 01.09.2003, hence no illegality is made out by considering his dismissal from there as he has not worked with the department since the given date. (Emphasis provided)."

8. Moreover, even void orders are required to be challenged within period of limitation provided by law. Supreme Court of Pakistan in its judgment reported as 2023 SCMR 866 has held as below:-

“6. Adverting to the arguments of learned ASC for the petitioner that there is no limitation against a void order, we find that in the first place, the learned ASC has not been able to demonstrate before us how the order of dismissal was a void order. In addition, this Court has repeatedly held that limitation would run even against a void order and an aggrieved party must approach the competent forum for redressal of his grievance within the period of limitation provided by law. This principle has consistently been upheld, affirmed and reaffirmed by this Court and is now a settled law on the subject. Reference in this regard may be made to Parvez Musharraf v. Nadeem Ahmed (Advocate) (PLD 2014 SC 585) where a 14 member Bench of this Court approved the said Rule. Reference in this regard may also be made to Muhammad Sharif v. MCB Bank Limited (2021 SCMR 1158) and Wajdad v. Provincial Government (2020 SCMR 2046). (Emphasis supplied)”

9. A perusal of record reveals that appellant was dismissed from service vide impugned order dated 08.05.2012 on the allegation of absence from duty with effect from the date of his absence i.e 26.11.2011, which was required to have been challenged through filing a departmental appeal within 30 days but the appellant filed departmental appeal on 21.03.2013 after a delay of more than 10 months. The departmental appeal of the appellant was filed vide order dated 16.12.2013, which was required to have been challenged within next 30 days through filing of service appeal before this Tribunal, however the appellant filed the instant service appeal on 11.02.2020 after a delay of more than 06 years, which is badly barred by time. August Supreme Court of Pakistan in its judgment reported as 2011 SCMR 08 has held that question of limitation cannot be considered a technicality simpliciter as it has bearing on merit of the case.

10. It is well settled that law favours the diligent and not the indolent. The appellant remained indolent and did not agitate the matter before the departmental authority and the Service Tribunal within the period prescribed under the relevant law. This Tribunal can enter into merits of the case only, when the appeal is within time. Supreme Court of Pakistan in its judgment reported as 1987 SCMR 92 has held that when an appeal is required to be dismissed on the ground of limitation, its merits need not to be discussed.

11. In view of the above discussion, it is held that as the departmental appeal and service appeal of the appellant are barred by time, therefore, this appeal is dismissed as it is not competent. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.

12. Pronounced in open court in Peshawar and given under our hands and seal of the Tribunal this 29th day of April, 2024.
