

20th May, 2024

1. Learned counsel for the appellant present.
2. Because of late depositing of TCS expenses, although the office had sent the notices through TCS, but those could not be served because of paucity of time and late depositing of expenses by the appellant. Therefore, appellant is directed to again deposit the expenses of TCS, within two days, so that fresh process could be issued to the respondents for 14.06.2024 for reply/comments, before S.B. P.P given to the appellant's counsel.

TCS Expenses
Not Submitted
7/6

**Mutazem Shah **

(Kalim Arshad Khan)
Chairman

14th June, 2024

1. Learned counsel for the appellant present. Mr. Umair Azam, Additional Advocate General for the respondents present.
2. On the previous date, the appellant was directed to deposit the expenses of TCS but he did not deposit the same. Learned counsel seeks time. Appellant is directed to deposit the expenses of TCS by today. To come up for reply/comments on 28.06.2024 before S.B. P.P given to the parties.

(Kalim Arshad Khan)
Chairman

**Adnan Shah, P.A.**