later-on absented from duty from 25-01-2019 till 12-05-2019, the appellant didn't take his duty seriously. It is also pertinent to mention that the appellant was appointed on contract / temporary basis and he is not entitled to claim relief before this Hon'ble Tribunal. Moreover, as per terms and conditions at S.No.3 and 12 his appointment was only for 1-year contract and was subject to the satisfactory performance. Further mentioned at S.No. 13 that he will have to work at the place of posting which is not transferable. (Appointment order Annexed as A).

5. That Para No.5 is incorrect. The appellant was absent for more than 4 months which is evident from the duty certificate. The appellant is lying about performing of duties in his initial days of duty and therefore, the salary of appellant was rightly stopped because it is now well settle principle that no work no pay. (Judgement Annexed as B).

6. That Para No.6. It is submitted that the appellant is not entitled to any salary for the period of 4 months as in his contract period he absented from duty without any notice or application. The appellant was appointed on contract basis and order are not issued to regularized his service, hence he is not civil servant and this service appeal is liable to be set-aside.
7. That Para NO.7. The appellant never applied / filed any representation within the specified time and the alleged application / departmental appeal before authority is time barred, hence this appeal also being time barred is liable to be set-aside.

1. The learned counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant has been denied salary without any lawful justification. Withholding of salary is a punishment, however, while withholding the salary no right of hearing was provided to him. The appellant was convicted under 324 PPC, the same does not amount conviction in the case of moral turpitude, hence, the appellant is entitled to the salary and arrears. The appellant was allegedly implicated in a criminal case. The allegations leveled were not of heinous nature. Hence, entitling the appellant to the reinstatement with arrears of pay. The appointment of the appellant is still intact, hence, the respondents department is bound to allow the appellant to join his duty and to release his salary. He prayed that on acceptance of this appeal the respondents be directed to release the salary of the appellant with effect from 2.10.2009 with all arrears.

terminated with no further benefits. With-holding of salary is punishment in such a criminal case. while the case of appellant is substantially enough to hold back his salary. The appellant has been charged under Section 392/324 PPC which is as per with other sections in the manner of service rules and is adequate to withhold the salary. 6. In view of the above, the Tribunal while agreeing with the arguments put forth by the learned counsel for the appellant accepts the appeal. The respondents are directed to release the salary of the appellant w.e.f. 20.5.2010, the date he reported his arrival for duty after serving out the sentence as no duty was performed by the appellant till 10.5.2010, hence, claim for arrears etc is denied (No work no pay).
