KALIM ARSHAD KHAN, CHAIRMAN: Learned counsel for the legal heirs of the deceased appellant present. Mr. Muhammad Jan, District Attorney alongwith Mr. Sohrab Khan, Lecturer for the respondents present.

02. Learned counsel for the legal heirs of the deceased appellant referred to the appellate order whereby, although no clear order regarding reinstatement was made yet, while going through the order as a whole an impression is made as if that the appellant was reinstated but the department was not giving any posting to the appellant and during the pendency of this appeal he died. When confronted with the situation, learned District Attorney referred to the Para-6 of the reply and submitted that Finance Department had created supernumerary post for the appellant and requested that the matter might be sent back to the respondents for doing what was necessary after this situation, so that the benefit which the deceased could have gotten, could be extended to the legal heirs. Disposed of accordingly. Consign.
