while the learned Deputy District Attorney controverted the same by supporting the impugned order.

5. Perusal of record reveals that appellant, being SHO Hassan Khel, was charged for his alleged negligence in duties due to which, one Said Bahadur was killed by his opponents in the presence of Police. Charge sheet/statement of allegations were served, he was dismissed from service but on his representation to the higher authority, his dismissal was converted into forfeiture of one year's approved service and the period for which he remained out of service was treated as leave without pay. Although, the appellant has been reinstated in service, however, other colleagues, accused with the same charges, were reinstated in service with all back benefits, while the appellant's penalty was converted into lessor penalty.

6. Three lacunas have been noted while passing the impugned order. The said are:

1. Disparity in treatment:

The appellant was treated differently than his colleagues who were accused of the same charges. While they were reinstated with all back benefits, the appellant's penalty was converted into forfeiture of one year's approved service and leave without pay.

2. Lack of consistency:

* 2. * ž

The decision to convert the appellant's dismissal into a lesser penalty, but still not reinstating him with full benefits, raises questions about the consistency of the disciplinary action.

3. Potential unfairness:

The fact that the appellant's colleagues were reinstated with full benefits, while the appellant was not, suggests unfair treatment.

7. In light of the above factors, we are of the view to rule in favor of the appellant, setting aside the impugned order dated 22.06.2022 and directing the respondents that the appellant be reinstated in service with all back benefits, consistent with the treatment of his colleagues accused of the same charges. Costs shall follow the event. Consign.

8. Pronounced in open Court at Peshawar and given under our hands and the seal of the Tribunal on this 22nd day of July, 2024.
