

30th July, 2024 1.

Learned counsel for the appellant present. Mr. Muhammad Jan, District Attorney for the respondents present.

2. In the earlier round of litigation, appeal of the appellant was allowed and the matter was remitted to the department for conduct of de-novo enquiry within a specified period which was delayed, compelling the appellant to file an execution petition and during pendency of execution petition order dated 30.05.2023 was passed by the respondents declaring the very appointment order to be fake. Against the order dated 30.05.2023 the appellant has filed departmental appeal, which is found placed on file, thereafter, he filed this appeal but has not specifically challenged the order dated 30.05.2023. We direct that the appellant shall file amended appeal challenging the order dated 30.05.2023 within a fortnight. To come up on 09.10.2024 before D.B. P.P given to the parties.
