That before superannuation, the Appellant as per relevant service rules was fit and eligible for promotion, thus was due for his promotion but has been made to suffer merely on account of departmental lapse of not holding PSB meeting before his superannuation. The Appellant has been deprived of his vested right of consideration for promotion due to act of respondents which has caused him permanent loss of pensionary benefits of higher grade despite the fact that the Appellant was pursuing his promotion case diligently and has filed written representation well within time before his superannuation.
- d. That the Appellant is a civil servant and the posts of Principal/Vice Principal (BPS-18) are lying vacant, the Appellant has been denied promotion before superannuation without any fault on his part.

Instructor/Training Manager/Senior Instructor/Trainer/Staff Trainer (BPS-17) circulated vide Notification dated 13-06-2022. The Petitioners have served for more than five years as Senior Instructors (BPS-17) in the respondent Department and a part from this the Petitioners have completed the requisite courses, thus the Petitioners are fit and eligible to be promoted to the post of Principal/Vice Principal (BPS-18). (Copy of Seniority list and Certificates of requisite Courses are filed herewith & annexed as Annex-C)

- 4. That the Petitioners approached the respondents for considering them for promotion to the post of Principal/Vice Principal (BPS-18) by filing applications. (Copy of application is filed herewith and annexed as Annex-D)
- 5. That the aforesaid applications of the Petitioners along with one Mr Muhammad Hassan, Senior Instructor were sent to the competent authority for placing their cases before the PSB vide letter dated 10-02-2023. The said Mr Muhammad Hassan, Senior Instructor has been promoted to BPS-18 which is evident from the Notification dated 17th November, 2022, whereas the Petitioners have been deprived from promotion. The Petitioner No 1 has retired from government service vide Notification dated 13-02-2023 and Petitioner No 2 has retired from government service on attaining the age of superannuation on 12-03-2023. (Copies of letter and Notifications are filed herewith and annexed as Annex-E & F)

Thus, the Petitioners feeling aggrieved of the inaction of the respondents, having no other adequate, alternate and efficacious remedy are constrained to approach this Honorable Court in its constitutional jurisdiction on the following amongst other grounds:

Grounds:

- a. That the treatment met out to the Petitioners is against the law, illegal, unlawful and without lawful authority, thus calling interference of this Honorable Court in its constitutional jurisdiction.
- b. That as per service rules of the respondent department, the Petitioners are fit and eligible to be promoted to the post of Principal/Vice Principal (BPS-18).
- c. That before superannuation, the Petitioners as per relevant service rules were fit and eligible for promotion, thus were due for their promotion but have been made to suffer merely on account of departmental lapse of not holding PSB meeting before their superannuation. The Petitioners have been deprived of their vested right of consideration for promotion due to act of respondents which has caused them permanent loss of pensionary benefits of higher grade despite the fact that the Petitioners were pursuing their promotion cases diligently and have filed written representation well within time before their superannuation.
