The case was called in its turn, but the appellant failed to appear before the Court. Consequently, the case was adjourned to 29.11.2024 for the appearance of the Appellant/Counsel. Later on, the appellant appeared and misbehaved with the Stenographers, Reader and both Naib Qasids of the Court, using aggressive language in the courtroom and falsely claiming that the case had not been called.

In view of the appellant's behavior, which is unacceptable and disruptive to the decorum of the Court, this appeal is hereby transferred to another Bench for arguments and disposal. The appellant is warned to be mindful of his behavior in the future and to respect the decorum of the Court.
