

FAQS ON E-FILING AT KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA SERVICE TRIBUNAL PESHAWAR

Q1: What is e-filing?

A1: E-filing is the process of submitting court documents electronically through the internet.

Q2: What types of documents can be filed electronically?

A2: Appeals, replies, comments, applications, documents, wakalatnama, and other court documents can be filed electronically.

Q3: How do I file documents electronically?

A3: Follow the Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) uploaded on the Tribunal's website.

Q4: Is e-filing mandatory?

A4: No, e-filing is optional. Parties can choose to file documents through traditional methods (hard copy or post) or electronically.

Q5: What are the benefits of e-filing?

A5: E-filing improves access to justice, reduces paperwork, and increases efficiency and transparency.

Q6: How do I get technical support for e-filing?

A6: Contact the Tribunal's IT department or refer to the SOPs for technical guidance.

Q7: Can I still file documents through traditional methods?

A7: Yes, traditional filing methods (hard copy or post) are still accepted.

Q8: Are the SOPs for e-filing available online?

A8: Yes, the SOPs are uploaded on the Tribunal's website.

This FAQ document aims to address common questions and provide clarity on the e-filing process at the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Peshawar.