Subject—REVISION OF PAY AND ALLOWANCES OF CIVIL EMPLOYEES OF THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT—GRANT OF CONVEYANCE ALLOWANCE.

I am directed to invite a reference to para 9 of this Department's letter of even number dated the 16th July, 1977 on the subject cited above and to say that a doubt has been expressed about the term "work premises" used with regard to the admissibility of "Residence-Office Conveyance Allowance."

2. It is clarified that the term "Work premises" denotes the area where an office and residential accommodation both are situated within the same compound wall or courtyard, e.g. in the case of polytechnic institutes Government Press, Government Hospitals, College Hostels, Police Lines, etc. However, in the case of an institution spread over a wide area like University Campus where an individual is supposed to undertake journeys to attend office daily, the admissibility of conveyance allowance may be decided by the Administrative Department on the merits of each case under intimation to the Audit Office concerned.
