Facts

- 1. Pertain to record, hence need no comments.
- 2. Pertain to record, hence need no comments.
- 3. Pertain to record, hence need no comments.
- 4. Pertain to record, hence need no comments.
- 5. Para to the extent of appointment of appellant, pertains to record needs no comments while rest of the Para is not plausible. As every Police Officer is under obligation to perform his duty up to his ability and entire satisfaction of high ups. Moreover, non receipt of complaint against an official does not mean clean chits that the officer is exonerated from future wrong deeds.
- 6. Para to the extent of enactment of Police Act 2017 is correct, hence need no comments while to the extent of repealing Police Ordinance 2016 is incorrect. As according to section 141 of the Act ibid, Police Order 2002 was repealed to the extent of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa through Police Act 2017 moreover, the remaining contents of the Para regarding section 32,33 & 34 of Police Act 2017 are correct hence, need no comments.

7. Incorrect, hence denied. Promotion are granted to the official of Police Telecommunication after successful completion of mandatory training/courses and on the basis of seniority cum-fitness while before the enactment of Police Act, 2017, Police Telecommunication Unit was governed by Standing Order and there were different trades like Wireless Telegraphy (WT), Tele Printer (TP), Radio Mechanic (RM), Fitter Guard Duty (GD, Electrician, Mason , Barber, Washer man, Vehicle Mechanics, Motorcycle Mechanic, etc and their seniority were maintained in their respective trades and promotion were granted to the official on the basis of Seniority Cum-fitness subject to availability of vacancies in their respective trades. (Copy of Standing Order attached as Annex-A)
8. Pertain to Police Rule 1934 hence needs no comment.
9. Pertain to Police Rule 1934 hence needs no comments.
10. Pertain to enactment of Police Act 2017 and amendments in Police Rule, 1934 vide notification No. 755/Legal dated 16.03.2017.
11. Incorrect, hence denied. After rule 13.9, new rule 13.9(A) was added to Police Rule 1934 vide amendment notification dated 16.03.2013 referred above.
12. Incorrect, hence denied. The appellant was appointed as Wireless Operator. As explained in the preceding Para before enactment of Police Act 2017 Police Telecommunication was governed by standing order wherein a separate seniority list was maintained for each trade and official were promoted on the basis of seniority cum-fitness subject to the availability of vacancy in their respective trade. However, after enactment of Police Act 2017 Police Force was organized on functional basis and Telecommunication & Transport Branch was declared as separate branch/Unit with Technical staff whereas separate rules, 22.A.13 was inserted in Police Rule 1934 through amendment vide notification dated 16.03.2017 refer above. In the wake of enactment of Police Act 2017 and newly amendment in Police Rule, a meeting of Police Policy Board was held on 03.05.2018 at Central Police Office Peshawar regarding issues faced by the official of Police Telecommunication during the meeting the following recommendation were approved.

- 1) Promotional Courses: Quota for officers of Telecommunication for Lower, Intermediate and Upper College Course at PTC Hangu to be given on priority basis and syllabus for these courses already submitted to CPO, may be approved.
