2

Respectfully Sheweth:-

1. That the above titled Service Appeal was pending adjudication before this Honorable Court, which was at its final stage of disposal.
2. That on 30/09/2024 counsel for the petitioner was serious ill due to viral infection of eyes and both eyes of the counsel for the applicant was badly affected along with temperature and was unable to appear in the above title service appeal while applicant was in Gilgit Baldistan where as clerk of the counsel was before the Hon'ble tribunal and mark the attendance with the reader of this Hon'ble court early in the Morning. (Copy of the order sheet dated 30/09/2024 and medical certificate are attached)
3. That absence of the Applicant was not intentional rather was for the reason mentioned above.
4. That equity demands disposal of cases on merits, rather than on technicalities whereas the Service Appeal was at its final stage of disposal.

3

5. That valuable rights of the applicant are involved in the case and if the Writ Petition is not restored, the petitioner would suffer irreparable loss.

It is, therefore, most graciously prayed that while allowing this application the Service Appeal may very graciously be restored for deposal on merits
