verification, fake and fabricated documents were found in their service record. Final show-cause notices were then issued to the appellants without mentioning therein that regular inquiry was dispensed with. It appears that the main allegations against the appellants were that their names had been inserted in the respective termination orders by way of tempering. The question of tempering being factual in nature was required to have been ascertained through a regular inquiry but the same has not been done. The departmental Authority was required to have adduced evidence in support of the allegations against the appellants by providing them opportunity of cross-examination. Although it is mentioned in the impugned Notifications that proceedings were conducted under the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Government Servants (Efficiency & Discipline) Rules, 2011 but the mandatory provisions of the same were not complied with. In these circumstances, conducting of de-novo inquiry in the matter is necessary for reaching a just and right conclusion.

The departmental Authority shall conduct de-novo inquiry strictly in accordance with the relevant law/rules within a period of 90 days of receipt of copy of this judgment and the result be intimated to this Tribunal through Registrar. Needless to mention that the appellant shall be associated with the inquiry proceedings and fair opportunity be provided to him to defend himself. Keeping in view peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, the issue of salary and back benefits shall be subject to outcome of de-novo inquiry. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.
