10,89,452/—was not a one-time event. Had there been any illegitimate draws, the department should have intervened timely and initiated the necessary proceedings. Simply citing the excess amount as a justification does not absolve the respondents of their responsibility to address the matter in a timely and lawful manner.

7. Secondly, the appellant's provision of a stamp paper does not automatically justify the deductions. Even if any amount was due upon the appellant, the department was legally obligated to intimate him to offer his defense, as a fair trial was his fundamental constitutional right.

8. In light of the above considerations, we find no merit in the impugned order dated 16.11.2021 and, as a result, we set aside the order, accepting the appellant's service appeal. Costs shall follow the event. Consign.

9. Pronounced in open Court at Peshawar and given under our hands and the seal of the Tribunal on this 6th day of November, 2024.

5. The appellant, having dedicated over 33 years of service to the department, retired as an Associate Professor (BPS-19) on 02.07.2021. He claims entitlement to a sum of Rs. 15,52,320/-, but only Rs. 4,62,868/- was paid to him as per the impugned order dated 16.11.2021. In response to the appellant's claim, the respondents argued that an outstanding amount of Rs. 10,89,452/- was owed by the appellant due to the irregular and excess drawl of remuneration from the second shift fund, as well as TA/DA claims paid from the government exchequer, which had been alleged by the audit team. Additionally, they contend that the appellant had voluntarily agreed, on stamp paper, to the deduction of any overpaid amounts from his pension or leave encashment.

6. It was incumbent upon the respondents to have properly scrutinized the appellant's financial dealings during his tenure to determine whether any unlawful draws had occurred, as they claim. The deduction was imposed abruptly, without prior notice to the appellant. Only after the appellant's departmental appeal did the respondents provide the justification for the deduction, which was neither just nor in line with the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Government Servants (Efficiency and Discipline) Rules, 2011. It is also important to note that payments and claims are not processed easily; they are subject to a detailed verification process that includes checking bills and source forms. Thus, the withdrawal of such a substantial amount—Rs.

JUDGMENT

KALIM ARSHAD KHAN, CHAIRMAN: Brief facts of the case, as per averments of the appeal, are that appellant was initially appointed as Lecturer (BPS-17) on 21.10.1987 in the respondent department; that after getting promotions from time to time, he was retired from service as Associate Professor (BPS-19), on 02.07.2021; that total leave encashment of LPR on credit of the appellant was allegedly Rs.15,52,320/- which was clarified vide letter dated 30.08.2021; that vide the impugned order dated 16.11.2021 the amount was only Rs.4,62,868/- transferred in the bank account of appellant; that feeling aggrieved, he filed departmental appeal on 24.01.2022 which effort resulted into failure, hence, the instant appeal.

2. On receipt of the appeal and its admission to full hearing, the respondents were summoned. Respondents put appearance and contested the appeal by filing written reply raising therein numerous legal and factual objections. The defense setup was a total denial of the claim of the appellant.

3. We have heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned Assistant Advocate General for respondents.

4. The learned counsel for the appellant reiterated the facts and grounds detailed in the memo and grounds of the appeal while the learned Assistant Advocate General controverted the same by supporting the impugned order(s).
