JUDGMENT

MUHAMMAD AKBAR KHAN, MEMBER (E): The instant service appeal has been instituted under Section 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 with the prayer copied as below:

"That on acceptance of the instant service appeal, the impugned orders may be set aside and the appellant may please be exonerated from the charges and be reinstated in service with full back benefits and wages of service."

2. Brief facts of the case are that the appellant while serving as Stenographer at Sessions Court, Peshawar was served with a show cause notice by the learned District & Sessions Judge, Peshawar as to why he should not be retired from service in terms of clause (a) of Sub-Section (1) of Section 13 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servants Act, 1973 (KP Act No. XVIII of 1973), the appellant was called upon to submit his explanation within seven days. The appellant refuted the allegations and submitted his detailed reply and also applied for the alleged incriminatory material that are used against him. The authority vide order dated 11.07.2011 directed the retirement from service of the appellant w.e.f 12.07.2011. After receipt of impugned order dated 11.07.2011 the appellant applied for the grant of the copies of the record, which was not provided. Feeling aggrieved appellant filed departmental appeal on 20.07.2011 before the august Peshawar High Court, Peshawar, which was dismissed vide impugned order and judgment dated 04.07.2014, hence the instant service appeal.

3. Respondents were put on notice, who submitted written replies/comments on the appeal. We have heard the learned counsel for the appellant as well as the learned District Attorney for the respondents and perused the case file with connected documents in detail.

4. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that impugned order passed by the respondents is against the law and in violation of Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973. He argued that proceedings conducted against the appellant are against the express provision of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Government Servants (Efficiency & Discipline) Rules, 1973 and order of retirement/penalty is nullity in the eyes of law. He further argued that no evidence is available where it could show that the appellant has willfully misconduct himself or for

Provided further that no direction under this Sub-section shall be made until the civil servant has been informed in writing of the grounds on which it is proposed to make the direction, and has been given reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the said direction."

As per proviso mentioned above reasonable opportunity of showing cause is required to be provided to the civil servant before issuance of compulsory retirement order by the authority. Appellant in written reply specifically requested for providing opportunity of self defense for rebutting allegation of corruption but no such opportunity was provided to the appellant for fulfilling requirement of justice. In the show cause notice it is mentioned that Anti Corruption Committee of the respondent department confirmed allegation of having persistent reputation of being corrupt of the appellant in its meeting held on 30.06.2011,

7. Perusal of minutes of the Anti-corruption Committee reveals that appellant was even not summoned to rebut the allegation of having persistent reputation of being corrupt on the basis of which committee formed an opinion about the character and honesty of the appellant. The accused was required to have been informed about it and chance to rebut the allegation provided to him. It is demand of law and justice

If the appellant was having persistent reputation of being corrupt even then in accordance with law, he was required to have been provided a chance to rebut it and prove his innocence. It is also pertinent to mention that another inquiry was also initiated against the appellant on the allegation of corruption record of which was also produced by the respondents which reveals that due to the compulsory retirement the same was held in abeyance vide order dated 25.05.2011.

8. As sequel to above discussion, the impugned orders are set aside and appellant is reinstated in service for the purpose of de-novo inquiry with direction to the respondents to conduct de-novo inquiry within a period of 90 days after receipt of copy of this judgment.
